To: Edward Welch, VisionSwipe Inc.
158 Grand Street
Grand Haven, Michigan 49460

Dear Mr. Welch,

The American Enterprise Institute is proud to support our students and honor the hard work they do. We invite you to support your local community by making a donation. We depend on the generosity of the surrounding community to provide the best opportunities for our children in light of drastic cuts to education budgets.

All donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. American Enterprise Institute is exempt from federal taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as a member of Parent Booster USA's (PBUSA) group exemption #5271.

In accordance with the rules and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), donors are advised to verify an organization's 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status. Copies of our current PBUSA membership certificate, PBUSA's IRS Group Exemption Letter, and current IRS Affirmation Letter are available upon request.

Only with your help can we continue to provide the level of support our students need and deserve. Thank you for considering a donation to this very worthy cause. Please contact me via +1 (123) 444-5555 or katherine.randall@email.com if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Katherine Randall

Fundraising Management in a Changing Museum World Kate Brueggemann, Donna McGinnis, 2023-12-06

Fundraising Management in a Changing Museum World explains how cultural organizations can successfully create sustainable fundraising programs that will increase financial support and stabilize revenue during times of change. Drawing on the authors' extensive experience, this book provides guidance that will enable readers to establish and maintain an efficient and effective fundraising program. Demonstrating that a strategic fundraising management plan is critical for identifying areas of growth, the authors also clarify how it helps to leverage an institution's resources and connections and ensure that time and budget are invested into the right activities. Readers will learn how to develop a plan for their organization, choose appropriate methods of solicitation for their audiences, and identify the roles of employees and volunteers in the process. Fundraising Management in a Changing Museum World is relevant to practitioners working in many different types and sizes of institutions around the world. The book is essential reading for development professionals as well as other museum practitioners, leaders, and volunteers. It is a valuable tool for early career professionals and students considering employment in the cultural field.

Beyond Book Sales Susan Dowd, 2014

Like library users, library donors hail from all walks of life. Regardless of the scope or complexity of library fundraising, successful efforts are always about forging and strengthening relationships with the range of stakeholders throughout the community. Dowd and her team from Library Strategies, a consulting group of the Friends of St Paul Public Library, share proven strategies that have brought in more than 1 million annually. Believing that private fundraising is a natural for libraries large and small, they start with 12 facts about library fundraising and focus on activities with the highest return. Tips and features include: The gift pyramid model for developing the culture of giving that leads to big gifts; Overcoming fears of sponsorship and embracing cause-related marketing; Pitching the appropriate charitable gift; Confronting common fears of requesting major gifts; The pros and cons of membership programs.

An Unforgettable After-Grad Linda Hunter, 2010-09

AN UNFORGETTABLE AFTER GRAD takes the guesswork out of planning and operating one of the most important events in a graduation year: the all-night graduation party. Combining her many years of corporate event planning along with her desire to keep her own three teen graduates safe, Linda Hunter has developed an easy-to-understand and easy-to-use guidebook for volunteer committees to produce a successful and memorable After Grad event. Designed for committee use, this practical guide provides a step-by-step, month-by-month approach, breaking down the almost year-long process into a straightforward, uncomplicated, and manageable project. Based on a systematic approach, this book includes inspiration along with tried-and-true ideas to help you design your own unforgettable event, specific instructions and directions for each committee, eliminating planning guesswork, a convenient monthly calendar of action items to keep your committee on time and on track, 26 essential, adaptable, easy-to-use forms to make planning faster and easier.

Ain't Nothing Like Freedom Cynthia McKinney, 2013-03-26 Elected six times to the House from the state of Georgia Cynthia McKinney cut a trail through Congressional deceit like a hot ember through ash She discovered legislators who passed laws without reading them Party leaders who colluded across party lines against their constituents interests Black skinned individuals shilling for the white status quo She excoriated government lassitude over Hurricane Katrina uncovering dark secrets She held the only critical Congressional briefing on 9 11 introducing counter testimony of scholars investigators former intelligence agents As a member of the House Armed Services Committee she held Rumsfeld to account for malfeasance by military contractors and missing billions in the Pentagon's budget. Then she hammered him on the reasons for the failure of NORAD air defenses on 9/11. She read truth into the Congressional Record, held town halls and hearings, led protests, showed up while others played along to get along, took the side of the people against the will of the Party. And when she got too truth seeking and speaking, the Republicans rigged the Democratic primaries to boot her out, leaving behind a trail of achievements mostly won singlehandedly as a result of her service on the House International Relations, House Agriculture, House Armed Services, and Budget Committees, and the Select Committee on Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. But McKinney rose again like a Phoenix, answering the call to run as 2008 Green Party candidate for President, challenging the corrupt two-party stranglehold on American democracy. Then it was on to the Freedom Flotilla to Gaza, to be seized on the high seas and imprisoned in Israel. On to Tripoli to serve as witness to the NATO terror bombing of Libya. On to Malaysia to serve on the War Crimes Commission. Often introduced as the Sojourner Truth, the Harriet Tubman of our age, McKinney reflects here on the Biblical figures of Esther, Deborah, and Naomi. This is the Cynthia McKinney saga as it stands to date: what she saw, what she learned, and how she fought for change.

Fundraising for Libraries James Swan, 2002. This book gives a basic overview of fundraising and discusses 25 fundraising techniques from conducting capital campaigns to writing grants.

Fundraising L. Peter Edles, 1993. Faced with smaller donations and sharply reduced government spending, charities and nonprofit organizations across the U.S. are falling far short of their fundraising goals. This hands-on operations manual remedies the funding crisis by showing nonprofit professionals and volunteers how to design and run successful fundraising campaigns for their organizations.

Gender and Rhetorical Space in American Life, 1866-1910 Nan Johnson, 2002. Nan Johnson demonstrates that after the Civil War, nonacademic or parlor traditions of rhetorical performance helped to sustain the icon of the white middle-class woman as queen of her domestic sphere by promoting a code of rhetorical behavior for women that required the performance of conventional femininity. Through a lucid examination of the boundaries of that gendered rhetorical space and the debate about who should occupy that space, Johnson explores the codes governing and challenging the American woman's proper rhetorical sphere in the postbellum years. While men were learning to preach, practice law, and set political policies, women were reading elocution manuals, letter writing handbooks, and other conduct literature. These texts reinforced the conservative message that women's words mattered, but mattered mostly in the home. Postbellum pedagogical materials were designed to educate Americans in rhetorical skills, but they also persistently directed the American woman to the domestic sphere as her proper rhetorical space. Even though these materials appeared to urge the white middle-class women to become effective speakers and writers, convention dictated that a woman's place was at the hearthside where her rhetorical talents were to be used in counseling and instructing as a mother and wife. Aided by twenty-one illustrations, Johnson has meticulously compiled materials from historical texts, no longer readily available to the general public and in so doing has illuminated this intersection of rhetoric and feminism in the nineteenth century. The rhetorical pedagogies designed for a postbellum popular audience represent the cultural sites where a rethinking of women's roles becomes open controversy about how to value their words. Johnson argues this era of uneasiness about shifting gender roles and the icon of the quiet woman must be considered as evidence of the need for a more complete revaluing of women's space in historical discourse.

Change a Life, Change your Own Peter

Ove, 2018-06-11T00:00:00Z. Change a Life Change Your Own is a long overdue adult discussion about how child sponsorship, a spectacularly successful fundraising tool, infantilizes both donor and recipient, turning good intentions into paternalism and reinforcing stereotypical Western ideas about helplessness and hopelessness in developing countries. Ian Smillie, author of The Charity of Nations: Freedom from Want and Diamonds, Change a Life Change Your Own. For less than a dollar a day. For the cost of one coffee a day. With these slogans and their accompanying images of poor children, some of the world's largest development organizations invite the global North to engage in one of their most prominent and successful fundraising techniques: child sponsorship. But as Peter Ove argues in Change a Life Change Your Own, child sponsorship is successful not because it addresses the needs of poor children, but because it helps position what it means to live ethically in an unequal and unjust world. In this way, child sponsorship is seen as more than an effective marketing tool; it is a powerful mechanism for spreading particular ideas about the global South, the global North, and the relationship between the two. Through sponsorship, the desire to raise money, secure appropriate childhoods, and become better people ends up taking priority over the goal of living together well on a global scale. Drawing on in-depth interviews with child sponsors and sponsorship staff, Change a Life Change Your Own explores the contexts in which sponsorship promotional material is produced, interpreted, and acted upon. This is not an exposé on the use of sponsorship dollars or high administrative costs; it is a clearly written and compelling account of how the problem of development is constructed such that child sponsorship is seen to be a rational and ethical solution.
