[Principal's Name]
[School's Name]
[School's Address]

Dear [Principal's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my sincere gratitude for your unwavering support and guidance during my time at [School's Name]. As I prepare to move forward into new opportunities, I wanted to take a moment to reflect on the impact you have had on my academic and personal growth.

Your leadership and dedication to creating a positive learning environment have made a lasting impression on me. Your commitment to fostering a culture of excellence has not only elevated the standard of education at [School's Name] but has also inspired me to strive for my personal best in every endeavor.

I appreciate the time and effort you invest in addressing the needs of students and ensuring that the school operates smoothly. Thank you once again for your guidance, mentorship, and leadership. I will carry the lessons learned at [School's Name] with me as I embark on new challenges and opportunities.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Instructor Experiences with Implementing Technology in Blended Learning Courses NELLIE. DEUTSCH ED D., Nellie Deutsch, 2010-05-21 Organizational leaders in institutions of higher education expect instructors to implement blended learning courses without understanding instructor experiences with technology Requiring faculty to teach blended learning courses without fully understanding the experiences instructors had implementing technology may lead to developing inappropriate professional training programs ineffective use of technology or to instructor disuse of technology in the future The purpose of this qualitative phenomenological research study was to explore the experiences instructors had implementing technology in blended learning courses in campus based institutions of higher education worldwide This qualitative phenomenological research study used a modified van Kaam method by Moustakas 1994 with in depth semi structured interviews to explore the experiences instructors had implementing technology in blended learning courses The analysis of the transcribed interviews revealed four themes a facilitating instruction and learning b frustrating c satisfying and rewarding and d socially connecting The conclusions derived from the study suggest that learning about the experiences instructors had implementing technology in blended learning courses may guide educational leaders in providing support and in preparing professional development workshops on how to teach blended learning courses
