The twentieth century has been a century of wars, genocides and violent political conflict, a century of militarization and massive destruction. It has simultaneously been a century of feminist creativity and struggle worldwide, witnessing fundamental changes in the conceptions and everyday practices of gender and sexuality. What are some of the connections between these two seemingly disparate characteristics of the past century? And how do collective memories figure into these connections? Exploring the ways in which wars and their memories are gendered, this book contributes to the feminist search for new words and new methods in understanding the intricacies of war and memory. From the Italian and Spanish Civil Wars to military regimes in Turkey and Greece, from the Armenian genocide and the Holocaust to the wars in Abkhazia, East Asia, Iraq, Afghanistan, former Yugoslavia, Israel and Palestine, the chapters in this book address a rare selection of contexts and geographies from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives. In recent years, feminist scholarship has fundamentally changed the ways in which pasts, particularly violent pasts, have been conceptualized and narrated. Discussing the participation of women in war, sexual violence in times of conflict, the use of visual and dramatic representations in memory research, and the creative challenges to research and writing posed by feminist scholarship, Gendered Wars, Gendered Memories will appeal to scholars working at the intersection of military war memory and gender studies seeking to chart this emerging territory with feminist curiosity.

Solving Public Problems Beth Simone Noveck, 2021-06-22

How to take advantage of technology, data and the collective wisdom in our communities to design powerful solutions to contemporary problems. The challenges societies face today, from inequality to climate change to systemic racism, cannot be solved with yesterday's toolkit. Solving Public Problems shows how readers can take advantage of digital technology, data and the collective wisdom of our communities to design and deliver powerful solutions to contemporary problems. Offering a radical rethinking of the role of the public servant and the skills of the public workforce, this book is about the vast gap between failing public institutions and the huge number of public entrepreneurs doing extraordinary things and how to close that gap. Drawing on lessons learned from decades of advising global leaders and from original interviews and surveys of thousands of public problem solvers, Beth Simone Noveck provides a practical guide for public servants, community leaders, students and activists to become more effective, equitable and inclusive leaders and repair our troubled twenty-first century world.

Intoxicating Pleasures Lisa Sheryl Jacobson, 2024

In popular memory, the repeal of US Prohibition in 1933 signaled alcohol's decisive triumph in a decades-long culture war. It took a world war and a battalion of public relations experts and tastemakers to transform wine, beer and whiskey into emblems of the American good life. Alcohol producers and their allies, a group that included scientists, trade associations, restaurateurs, home economists, cookbook authors and New Deal planners, powered a publicity machine that linked alcohol to wartime food crusades and new ideas.
