Woolfolk, Kay Margetts, 2012-07-25 Learning and teaching is an integrated process and theory and practice cannot be separated. As in the previous Australasian edition Educational Psychology 3e continues to emphasise the educational implications and applications of child development, cognitive science, learning and teaching. Recurring themes throughout the text include ideas about education, social and socio-cultural aspects of education, schools, families and community, development, learning and curriculum, and effective teaching. Author Kay Margetts incorporates Australasian perspectives and applications using the work of Australasian researchers and teachers. Numerous examples, case studies, guidelines, and practical tips from experienced teachers are used in the text to explore the connections between knowledge, understanding and practice.

Improving Maths and English in Further Education: A Practical Guide Jonathan Kay, 2021-06-04 Improving Maths and English in Further Education provides a strategic, practical and easily applied toolkit for teachers and leaders as they work with students to gain core skills. The book highlights the unique challenges that are faced within the sector and the value of embedding college-wide literacy and numeracy for success, providing a range of strategies to resolve challenges. Structured to make sure that there is always an alternative approach, method or suggestion, the book allows the reader to choose the steps that suit their context best. Each chapter looks at the key priorities, identifies a range of potential solutions to a challenge faced in FE, acknowledges potential implementation pitfalls and remedies, suggests practical takeaways, key considerations and next steps. Teachers and staff within further and Post 16 education will find this an essential resource for supporting students studying maths and English. Teachers and leaders from curriculum areas across the sector will find scenarios and anecdotes that resonate in this book. Timetabling, accountability, motivation: a must read. Catherine Sezen, Senior Policy Manager FE. This is an interesting and engaging read from Jonny who has produced a book that brings together contemporary educational literature with a personal and honest take on leading and teaching English and Maths in FE. Steven Wallis, Executive Director Quality NCG. This book caters for the many different voices, people and characters in FE; it does exactly what it says on the tin. It will give you all the tools for a great job with an evidence base to boot. Julia Smith, tessmaths. Jonathan Kay has managed and led English and maths departments in Further Education since 2017, as well as working as consultant for the Association of Colleges and Lead English Expert and examiner for a leading exam board.
