Pursuing Doctor West English Edition:

The Indigestions Thomas King Chambers, 1868 The History, Diagnosis, and Treatment of the Fevers of the United States Elisha Bartlett, 1856 On the Organic Diseases and Functional Disorders of the Stomach George Budd, 1856 The Medical Times and Gazette, 1881 Seeking a Voice David B. Sachsman, S. Kittrell Rushing, Roy Morris, Roy Morris (Jr.), 2009 This volume chronicles the media's role in reshaping American life during the tumultuous nineteenth century by focusing specifically on the presentation of race and gender in the newspapers and magazines of the time. The work is divided into four parts: Part I Race Reporting details the various ways in which America's racial minorities were portrayed; Part II Fires of Discontent looks at the moral and religious opposition to slavery by the abolitionist movement and demonstrates how that opposition was echoed by African Americans themselves; Part III The Cult of True Womanhood examines the often disparate ways in which American women were portrayed in the national media as they assumed a greater role in public and private life; and Part IV Transcending the Boundaries traces the lives of pioneering women journalists who sought to alter and expand their gender's participation in American life, showing how the changing role of women led to various journalistic attempts to depict and define women through sensationalistic news coverage of female crime stories.

Medical notes and reflections Sir Henry Holland, 1857 The American Journal of the Medical Sciences, 1859 A Practical Treatise on the Diagnosis, Pathology, and Treatment of Diseases of the Heart Austin Flint, 1859 A Practical Treatise on the Diagnosis, Pathology, and Treatment of Diseases of the Heart Austin FLINT (the Elder.), 1859 Therapeutics and Materia Medica Alfred Stillé, 1860 Western Medicine for Chinese Faith C. S. Ho, 2017-10-03

The founders of the Hong Kong College of Medicine for Chinese HKCM had the lofty vision of helping to bring Western science and medicine to China, which they hoped would contribute to the larger objective of modernizing the nation. That this latter goal was partly realized through the non-medical efforts of its first and most famous graduate Dr Sun Yat-sen is a well-known story. Faith C. S. Ho's Western Medicine for Chinese brings the focus back to the primary mission of HKCM by analyzing its role in the transfer of medical knowledge and practices across cultures. It offers a detailed account of how the pioneering staff of the college and the fifty-nine graduates, besides Dr Sun, overcame significant obstacles to enable Western medicine to gain wider acceptance among Chinese and to facilitate the establishment of such services by the Hong Kong government. Some of these Chinese doctors went on to practise medicine in China, but arguably the college had made the most lasting impact on Hong Kong. Ho observes that the timing of the founding 1887 and the closing 1915 of the college could not have been more strategic. The late nineteenth century beginning allowed enough time for HKCM to lay a solid foundation for medical training in the city. Later the college was ready to play a pivotal role in the establishment of the University of Hong Kong, which had important implications for subsequent social developments in the city. Faith Ho's concise yet comprehensive study of the Hong Kong College of Medicine examines the people and personalities who created and sustained this remarkable institution It is as much about medicine as it is about colonialism and Hong Kong itself John M Carroll University of Hong Kong This is a meticulously researched and comprehensive account of the history of the Hong Kong College of Medicine for Chinese Those seeking information of Western medicine in the early years of Hong Kong need look no further for surely there is no better document than this Sir David Todd Founding President Hong Kong Academy of Medicine It is a valuable history of one of Hong Kong s most important educational institutions It provides also a commentary on the cultural exchange between Western values and methods and those of the Chinese in that fundamental area of human concern medicine W John Morgan University of Nottingham and Cardiff University The Lancet London ,1863 The Western Medical Reporter ,1889 The Japanese in the Western Mind Perry Hinton,2023-06-16 This fascinating book is an insightful exploration of Western perceptions and representations of Japanese culture and society drawing on social and cultural psychological ideas around stereotypes and intercultural relations Hinton considers how the West views the Japanese as an ideologically different other and proposes a cultural theory of stereotypes from which to explore Western observations of the Japanese The book explores Western socio cultural representations of the Japanese alongside Edward Said s well known theory of Orientalism It examines the West s intercultural relationship with Japan and how this has changed over time to show how the Japanese have been represented in the Western mind throughout history to the present day Hinton argues that our view of other cultures is based on our own cultural expectations which involve complex issues of meaning making and perceived cultural differences This book foregrounds the research through accounts of Westerners about the Japanese to reveal how cultural representations can influence the ways in which people from different cultures communicate in interaction and how intercultural understanding or misunderstanding can arise By reflecting on the changing Western representations of the Japanese and how and why these have emerged this book will be of interest to students academics and general readers interested in stereotypes cultural psychology intercultural communication anthropology and Japanese culture and history Principles of Mental Physiology, with Their Chief Applications to Psychology, Pathology, Therapeutics, Hygiène and Forensic Medicine Carpenter,1858 Entwicklung Tod General Therapeutics and Materia Medica Robley Dunglison,1857 A Treatise on the physical and medical treatment of children William Potts Dewees,1858 Woman Charles Delucena Meigs,1859 Handbook of chemistry Sir Frederick Augustus Abel,1854
