HAYES, Kevin J. Hayes,2025-05-14 An exploration of the mind of one of America s most beloved Founding Fathers and most brilliant minds through the books he read and his social circles in the United States and Europe Arguably the most intellectual creative cosmopolitan and curious of the Founding Fathers Benjamin Franklin is the only top tier Founder not to have served as president Despite not becoming the Chief Executive Franklin played an active role in American politics and served the aspiring and young United States in the key European capitals His prodigious reading and appetite for learning are epic As he did in works about Thomas Jefferson and George Washington Kevin J Hayes interprets the life and mind of Franklin through what he read Undaunted Mind tells the story of the development of Franklin s intellect starting with the earliest books he read as a child before examining his formal schooling and his independent study after his father pulled him from school As an apprentice in his brother s printing house Franklin s intellectual life developed through his contact with the Couranteers the group of his brother s friends who contributed to his newspaper and through his attention to his brother s excellent office library After Franklin ran away to Philadelphia he developed a new group of friends all of whom loved reading In many ways the story of Franklin s intellectual odyssey is the story of the friends he made along the way His time in London in his late teens introduced him to several important intellectuals who encouraged him to develop his mind After returning to Philadelphia from London he and some friends formed the Junto a club for mutual improvement that made reading and writing important activities With other members of the Junto he formed the Library Company of Philadelphia the first subscription library in colonial America His role as a printer put him in contact with the best eighteenth century American writing and kept a steady flow of imported books coming from Britain He became a scientist assembling a great scientific library which helped his electrical research An educational reformer Franklin founded the Philadelphia Academy which would become the University of Pennsylvania As agent for the Pennsylvania Assembly Franklin lived in London for many years where he befriended some of Britain s greatest minds Different concentrations of books in his library reveal Franklin s interests in travel and exploration warfare and slavery His time in Paris toward the end of his life gave Franklin another great intellectual experience but he ultimately returned home to live the last five years of his life in Philadelphia where he imparted his knowledge and experience to a new generation of Americans In this gripping work Benjamin Franklin is given a biography as rich and complex as his own intellectual life by master literary historian Kevin J Hayes

Benjamin Franklin Bache and the Philadelphia "Aurora" James Tagg, 2016-11-11 This is the first modern biography of Benjamin Franklin Bache the grandson of Benjamin Franklin Between the turbulent years of 1793 and 1798 Bache was the young nation s leading political journalist and a sharp critic of the Federalists and their policies As editor of the most important radical newspaper of the 1790s he lived at the center of most of the political storms of that decade He defended the Democratic Societies as the earliest vehicles of public opinion he strenuously opposed the ratification of the Jay Treaty the central political event of the decade he led and orchestrated the attack on George Washington in an attempt to curb growing executive authority and his defense of French policies contributed to the sedition crisis of 1798 A primary target of the Federalist sponsored Sedition Act he was indicted for federal common law seditious libel before that act took effect In 1798

at the height of the political hysteria Bache died of yellow fever at the age of twenty nine Like Thomas Paine to whom Bache was personally and ideologically connected Bache was not a product of Whig Oppositionist or classical republican ideology Yet neither was he an inheritor of a more thoroughly modern liberal ideal Committed to rational self interest he promoted a civic vision and only partially embraced the newer world of nascent capitalism James Tagg establishes the ideological and psychological framework of Bache's later radicalism by carefully examining Bache's childhood at Passy with his grandfather his education in Geneva and his adolescence in Philadelphia Benjamin Franklin Bache and the Philadelphia Aurora will interest scholars and students of American history

Selected Works of Theophile Gautier Theophile Gautier, Brother you ask me if I have ever loved Yes My story is a strange and terrible one and though I am sixty six years of age I scarcely dare even now to disturb the ashes of that memory To you I can refuse nothing but I should not relate such a tale to any less experienced mind So strange were the circumstances of my story that I can scarcely believe myself to have ever actually been a party to them For more than three years I remained the victim of a most singular and diabolical illusion Poor country priest though I was I led every night in a dream would to God it had been all a dream a most worldly life a damning<sup>1</sup> life a life of a Sardanapalus One single look too freely cast upon a woman well nigh caused me to lose my soul but finally by the grace of God and the assistance of my patron saint I succeeded in casting out the evil spirit that possessed me My daily life was long interwoven with a nocturnal life of a totally different character By day I was a priest of the Lord occupied with prayer and sacred things by night from the instant that I closed my eyes I became a young nobleman a fine connoisseur in women dogs and horses gambling drinking and blaspheming and when I awoke at early daybreak it seemed to me on the other hand that I had been sleeping and had only dreamed that I was a priest Of this somnambulistic life there now remains to me only the recollection of certain scenes and words which I cannot banish from my memory but although I never actually left the walls of my presbytery one would think to hear me speak that I were a man who weary of all worldly pleasures had become a religious seeking to end a tempestuous life in the service of God rather than an humble seminarist who has grown old in this obscure curacy situated in the depths of the woods and even isolated from the life of the century Yes I have loved as none in the world ever loved with an insensate and furious passion so violent that I am astonished it did not cause my heart to burst asunder Ah what nights what nights From my earliest childhood I had felt a vocation to the priesthood so that all my studies were directed with that idea in view Up to the age of twenty four my life had been only a prolonged novitiate Having completed my course of theology I successively received all the minor orders and my superiors judged me worthy despite my youth to pass the last awful degree My ordination was fixed for Easter week I had never gone into the world My world was confined by the walls of the college and the seminary I knew in a vague sort of a way that there was something called Woman but I never permitted my thoughts to dwell on such a subject and I lived in a state of perfect innocence Twice a year only I saw my infirm and aged mother and in those visits were comprised my sole relations with the outer world I regretted nothing I felt not the least hesitation at taking the last irrevocable step I was filled with joy and impatience Never did a betrothed lover count the slow hours with more feverish ardor I slept only to dream that I was saying mass I believed there could be nothing in the world more delightful than to be a priest I would have refused to be a king or a poet in preference My ambition could conceive of no loftier aim I tell you this in order to show you that what happened to me could not have happened in the natural order of things and to enable you to understand that I was the victim of an inexplicable fascination At last the great day came I walked to the church with a step so light that I fancied myself sustained in air or that I had wings upon my shoulders I believed myself an angel and wondered at the somber and thoughtful faces of my companions for there were several of us I had passed all the night in prayer and was in a condition well nigh bordering on ecstasy The bishop a venerable old man seemed to me God the Father leaning over his Eternity and I beheld Heaven through the vault of the temple

War, Law and Humanity James Crossland, 2018-06-28 War Law and Humanity tells the story of the transatlantic campaign to either mitigate the destructive forces of the battlefield or prevent wars from being waged altogether in the decades prior to the disastrous summer of 1914 Starting with the Crimean War of the 1850s James Crossland traces this campaign to control warfare from the scandalous barracks of Scutari to the shambolic hospitals of the American Civil War from the bloody sieges of Paris and Erzurum to the combative conference halls of Geneva and The Hague uncovering the intertwined histories of a generation of humanitarians surgeons pacifists and utopians who were shocked into action by the barbarism and depravities of war By examining the fascinating personal accounts of these figures Crossland illuminates the complex motivations and influential actions of those committed to the campaign to control war demonstrating how their labours built the foundation for the ideas enshrined in our own times as international norms that soldiers need caring for weapons need restricting and wars need rules
