Harrison,2010-05 A camera sees differently than our eyes do and can be used as a means to communicate a story For most artists the story goes beyond themselves and capturing moments from their lives and the literal content contained within the frame The photographs no longer reveal literal truth but instead present a metaphor for a greater truth The viewer is engaged in identifying the metaphor and appreciating the relationship that the photographer has demonstrated with the subject This portfolio is both However there is a third component of this portfolio that makes it worthy of being the work product of a Masters Degree Scholar these photographs were specifically created in such a way as to maximize a viewers engagement with these images I applied scientific research to my photographic process in order to maximize the portfolio's ability to engage the viewer Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 00 00 0000 0000 00 00,2018-04-23 _ MeToo The Neuroses of Edgar Allan Poe John A.
