

Welcome Back to School Speech

Good morning and on behalf of the PTO I would like to welcome you to the 2008-2009 school year. I hope you all had a refreshing summer.

One of my sons recently asked me why I volunteer with PTO. "To make a difference," was my reply to him. And that is also what the New Milford PTO strives to do - make a difference. We work to make a difference in the lives of the students, parents, school personnel and teachers. Sometimes our gestures are as simple as providing volunteers for classroom activities, other times it's in the form of larger gifts to the schools.

As this school year begins, educators have enormous gifts to give - the gift of enhancing the lives of our students; the gift of teaching the children of this community, of helping them grow and succeed; the gift of inspiring a love of learning; and in my opinion, the best gift a teacher can give, the gift of enthusiasm.

Today, I ask you to rekindle your own enthusiasm for whatever it is you teach because we all know what a child receives inside the classroom extends so much further. It is our duty as role models and leaders to make a positive and lasting difference in the lives of students. Together, let's create a vision - for ourselves as educators and parents; for the classrooms; and for every individual student! This vision does not need to be a grandiose achievement. Small steps can dramatically enhance a student's learning experience. When we do this, we will be doing all that we can to make a positive difference.

To illustrate, I would like to recount for you one of my favorite stories from the original Chicken Soup for the Soul - the Young Man and the Starfish.

Once upon a time there was a wise man who used to go to the ocean to do his journal writing. He had a habit of walking on the beach before he began his work. One day he was walking along the shore. As he looked down the beach, he saw a human figure moving like a dancer. He smiled to himself to think of someone who would dance to the day. So he began walking faster to catch up.

As he got closer, he saw that it was a young man and the young man wasn't dancing, but instead was reaching down to the shore, picking up something and very gently throwing it into the ocean. As he got closer he called out, "Good morning! What are you doing?"
