Dr William G M Brandful born on December 04 1952 in Cape Coast Ghana will turn sixty years old on December 04 2012 when he will launch his book Personal Reflections of a Ghanaian Foreign Service Officer Whither Ghanaian Diplomacy The book chronicles Dr Brandful's experiences as a Foreign Service Officer in a way that those experiences serve to mirror the diplomacy of Ghana which then gets examined to see how it may have excelled in the past how it is being confronted currently with challenges to the point of sometimes blunting its efficacy and how it could be re engineered towards greater future achievement The attempt may be ambitious but it is motivated by a passionate sincerity only equaled by the other commitment to also contribute through the book to the creation of institutional memory for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Regional Integration of Ghana Currently the Ambassador of Ghana to Japan with concurrent accreditation to Singapore as non Resident High Commissioner the author served previously at the Ghanaian Missions in Zambia Mali Germany and Benin Between the date of joining the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Regional Integration in May 1977 and the specified diplomatic assignments Ambassador Brandful worked at various positions at the Ministry in Ghana including Chief of Protocol and later as Supervising Director Policy Planning Research and Monitoring Dr Brandful had his Secondary education in Ghana at Mfantshipim School from 1964 to 1971 and pursued his initial university studies at the University of Ghana 1971-75 including one year abroad 73-74 at the University of Dakar Senegal followed by post graduate studies successively at the Polytechnic of Central London University of Nairobi Kenya International Institute for Public Administration in Paris I I A P The Hague Academy of International Law and the University of Paris XI Sceaux Faculty France from where he obtained a Doctorat de Troisième Cycle in International Relations in January 1986 Dr Brandful is married to Dinah Brandful nee Coleman has four daughters and three grandchildren He speaks French As hobbies Ambassador Brandful plays squash tennis piano and golf

Ghana Gazette Ghana, 1975      Public Sector Management and Economic Governance in Ghana Joseph R.A. Ayee, Lloyd G.A. Amoah, Seidu M. Alidu, 2024-06-04 This book is one of two volumes that examines the successes and failures of the Ghanaian Fourth Republic from a political public administration and public policy viewpoint Published to coincide with the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the Fourth Republic these volumes bring together leading scholars to consider the political achievements and failures that have taken place in the country since 1993 and what these tell us about the state of politics and democracy in twenty first century Ghana and beyond This volume focuses on public sector management and economic governance It assesses themes such as policy elites policing bureaucrats and public servants the economy decentralization rural development and foreign policy The volume also places Ghana in a global context demonstrating how lessons learnt from the country can be applied elsewhere and what is unique about the Ghanaian experience It will appeal to all those interested in public management public administration governance economics and African politics Daily Graphic Elvis D. Aryeh,1997-06-19 Ghana International Monetary Fund,2005-08-15 This 2005 Article IV Consultation highlights that economic performance in Ghana has improved since 2000 with the economy growing at its fastest pace in more than a decade In 2004 real GDP growth reached 5.8 percent driven by agriculture and a strong pickup in the services and construction sectors helped by increased bank credit and private inward remittances Ghana's medium term prospects appear promising with growth projected to continue at the current relatively high rate provided that macroeconomic stability becomes further entrenched with fiscal sustainability inflation declines further and the government perseveres with structural reform Decentralisation in Commonwealth Africa Janet Kathyola,Oluwatoyin Job,2011 Through detailed case studies of decentralisation policies in five sub Saharan African countries Botswana Cameroon Ghana Mozambique and Tanzania this book examines the challenges presented lessons learned and recommends ways to improve policy implementation Ghana International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2024-07-11 This Medium Term National Development Policy Framework MTNDPF 2022-2025 seeks to operationalize Article 36 Clause 1 of Ghana's 1992 constitution which enjoins Government to ensure that the national economy is managed efficiently to maximize the welfare of the citizenry It was prepared with broad based stakeholder participation including the use of cross sectoral planning groups CSPGs as enjoined by article 15 of the National Development Planning Commission Act 1994 Act 479 Public consultations were also undertaken across the country including engagement with parliament and the presidency It was finally approved by the Commission following approval from the presidency and presented to Parliament Capacity Building in Africa World Bank,2005-01-01 African countries need to improve the performance of their public sectors if they are going to achieve their goals of growth poverty reduction and the provision of better services for their citizens Between 1995 and 2004 the Bank provided some 9 billion in lending and close to 900 million in grants and administrative budget to support public sector capacity building in Africa This evaluation assesses Bank support for public sector capacity building in Africa over these past 10 years It is based on six country studies assessments of country strategies and operations across the Region and review of the work of the World Bank Institute the Institutional Development Fund and the Bank supported African Capacity Building Foundation Public Sector Reform in Developing and Transitional Countries Christopher Rees,Farhad Hossain,2013-09-13 Over recent decades decentralization has emerged as a key Public Sector Reform strategy in a wide variety of international contexts Yet despite its emergence as a ubiquitous activity that cuts across disciplinary lines in international development decentralization is understood and applied in many different ways by parties acting from contrary perspectives This book offers a fascinating insight into theory and practice surrounding decentralization activities in the Public Sectors of developing and transitional countries In drawing on the expertise of established scholars the book explores the contexts achievements progress and challenges of decentralization and local governance Notably the contributions contained in this book are genuinely international in nature the chapters explore aspects of decentralization and local governance in contexts

as diverse as Ghana Hong Kong India Indonesia Kazakhstan Morocco Tanzania Uganda and Viet Nam In summary by examining the subject of decentralization with reference to specific developing and transitional Public Sector contexts in which it has been practiced this book offers an excellent contribution towards a better understanding of the theory and practice of decentralization and local governance in international settings This book was published as a special double issue of the International Journal of Public Administration      Ghana Country Assistance Review Robert Pritchard

Armstrong,1996 Assesses the progress of private sector development in low income countries particularly in Sub Saharan Africa from 1987 to the present The book identifies causes of uneven performance and outlines the main elements of a strategy led by the private sector for accelerated and shared growth to reduce poverty Also available in French ISBN 0 8213 3550 2 Stock No 13550      Policy, Program and Project Evaluation Anwar Shah,2020-11-02 Evaluation in recent decades has evolved from a tool for project appraisals to a more widely used framework for public decision making and operational management Most evaluation books are focused on traditional tools of analysis such as cost effectiveness and cost benefit analysis to the neglect of modern tools such as multi criteria evaluation social marginal cost of funds analysis data envelopment analysis results oriented management and evaluation and theory based evaluations This edited volume provides an easily accessible and comprehensive survey of both traditional and modern tools of analysis that are used in the evaluation literature to evaluate public projects programs policies and policy analysis and advice The book will be of interest to students scholars researchers practitioners and policy makers      Administrative Culture in Developing and Transitional

Countries Ishtiaq Jamil,Steinar Askvik,Farhad Hossain,2016-03-17 The book explores theoretical methodological and empirical underpinnings of administrative culture as well as prospects and challenges associated with it in the context of and across developing and transitional countries Referring to dominant norms and values in public organizations administrative culture is about the attitudes and perceptions of public officials In many countries civil servants are criticised for being corrupt incompetent unreliable and self centred Their attitudes norms and values and the way they act are in constant conflict with rule of law Recently the virtues of the Weberian model of bureaucracy have been reclaimed as an alternative to New Public Management NPM i e as a model which emphasizes impartiality rule following expertise and hierarchy rather than manipulation of incentive structures and market competition In particular it has been argued that a system of meritocratic recruitment and predictable long term careers increases the professional competence of the bureaucrats and fosters a culture of professionalism among them Still it is unclear how and under what conditions such a model can be adopted Among main hindrances seems to be established power structures and the existing political and societal culture which undermine the effective implementation of the Weberian model This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of Public Administration      The Contract System of Employment for Senior Government

new public management programme on the roles and conditions of service of permanent secretaries and directors in Botswana Ghana Uganda and Zambia These countries introduced the contract system of employment and their experience highlights the importance of acknowledging context in considering the implications of the contract system and the challenges of implementation Public Service Review and Reorganisation Commission, 1989-1990: Main report Uganda. Public Service Review and Re-organization Commission,1990 Ghana News ,1979 Demanding Good Governance Mary McNeil,Carmen Malena,2010-06-23 Accountability is the cornerstone of good governance Unless public officials can be held to account then critical benefits associated with good governance such as social justice poverty reduction and development remain elusive The impacts of non responsive and unaccountable governance are perhaps most harshly felt by the citizens of Africa where corruption and governance failures are broadly acknowledged as a principal obstacle to the achievement Over the past decade a range of social accountability practices such as participatory budgeting independent budget analysis participatory monitoring of public expenditure and citizen evaluation of public services have been experimented with in many Africa countries Their outcomes and lessons have thus far received little attend and documentation This volume aims to make a contribution towards filling this gap by describing and analyzing a selection of social accountability initiatives from seven Sub Saharan countries Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2014-04-07 Informal Economy and Sustainable Development Goals A Vinodan,S Mahalashkmi,S Rameshkumar,2024-10-07 What role does the informal economy have to play in SDG implementation The chapters collected here by a range of scholars explore this question in detail examining case studies and presenting empirical evidence based on both qualitative and quantitative assessment The Government Analytics Handbook Daniel Rogger,Christian Schuster,2023-10-27 The Government Analytics Handbook presents frontier evidence and practitioner insights on how to leverage data to strengthen public administration Covering a range of microdata sources such as administrative data and public servant surveys as well as tools and resources for undertaking the analytics it transforms the ability of governments to take a data informed approach to diagnose and improve how public organizations work Readers can order the book as a single volume in print or digital formats or visit worldbank org governmentanalytics for modular access and additional hands on tools The Handbook is a must have for practitioners policy makers academics and government agencies Governments have long been assessed using aggregate governance indicators giving us little insight into their diversity and how they can practically be improved This pioneering handbook shows how microdata can be used to give scholars and practitioners granular and real insights into how states work and practical guidance on the process of state building Francis Fukuyama Stanford University author of State Building Governance and World Order in the 21st Century The Government Analytics Handbook is the most comprehensive work on practically building government administration I have ever seen helping practitioners to change public administration for the better Francisco Gaetani Special Secretary for State Transformation Government of Brazil The machinery of the state is central to a country s prosperity This handbook provides insights and methodological tools for creating a better shared understanding of the realities of a state to support the redesign of institutions and improve the quality of public administration James Robinson University of Chicago coauthor of Why Nations Fail     Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayeboafah, 2006-05-04
