CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN

Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country s problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don't they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University Spirals of Contention Satish Saberwal, 2012-04-27 This study examines the social and psychological processes that led to the Partition of the Indian subcontinent in 1947 It recognizes the long term continuities in the idiom of conflict as well as cooperation and shows that by 1900 the conflicts and animosities were gathering a self aggravating momentum The book moves back and forth between evidence and general or theoretical understanding Separateness between Hindus and Muslims grew reciprocally with hardening religious identities and the growing frequency of incidents of conflict These skirmishes had several dimensions symbolic desecrating places of worship societal conversions and physical violence against women As mutual trust declined a quarter century of negotiations under diverse auspices failed to yield an agreement and even the framework of the Partition in 1947 was imposed by the colonial rulers A theoretically informed study this book takes a comparative stance along several axes Recognizing long term continuities in the idiom of conflict as well as of cooperation it will be of interest to students of conflicts Partitions history sociology and South Asian studies Oswaal One For All Olympiad Class 3 General Knowledge | Previous Years Solved Papers | For 2024-25 Exam Oswaal Editorial
