

Purdue OWL

Essay Formatting: APA, Chicago, MLA

General APA Guidelines

- Your essay should be typed, double-spaced with 1" margins on 8.5" x 11" paper. The preferred typeface is Times New Roman, with a 12-point font size.
- Include a page header at the top of every page.
- Leave two spaces after periods.
- Your essay should include four major sections: Title Page, Abstract, Main Body, and References.

Title Page

- To create the page header for the title page (see example below):
 - insert page number top right of header.
 - insert the phrase "Running head:" followed by a shortened version of your title in the top left of the header. The shortened version of your paper's title should be written in capital letters and contain no more than 50 characters, including spacing and punctuation. (Note that the phrase "Running head:" only appears on the title page. The shortened title appears without this phrase on all subsequent pages.)
- The title page should contain the full title of the paper, the author's name, and the institutional affiliation.
- Centre and type your full title in upper and lowercase letters in the upper half of the page. Your title should not exceed 12 words and should not contain abbreviations; it may take up one or two lines. Remember to double-space all text.
- Below the title, centre and type your full name and that of any co-authors.
- Below the author's name, type the institutional affiliation to indicate the location where the author(s) conducted the research (e.g., York University).

Abstract (may not be required for all assignments)

- Place the abstract on a separate page, with the header as described above and numbered as page 2. On the first line of the abstract page, center the word "Abstract" (do not use bold, formatting, italics, underlining, or quotation marks).
- Beginning on the next line, summarize the key points of your research (research topic, research questions, participants, methods, results, data analysis, and conclusions). Your abstract should be a single paragraph (do not indent), and between 150 and 250 words.
- You may list keywords that identify the most important concepts of your paper. Indent and type Keywords: (italicized), and then list your keywords.

Advanced English for Nursing Student Dina Rafidiyah, Hafizhatu Nadia, Yansyah, 2018-11-30 Teaching English as a Foreign Language in Indonesia faces many obstacles Firstly English is not day to day used so the students have difficulty to practice it They only use it in the limited time classroom so teachers have difficulty to make authentic situation for the students to practice the language outside the class Second obstacle is the students bad experiences during their previous schooling in learning English The students come from different school background some remote school may not have good teachers especially in teaching English Even some students have bad impression that make them hate English The last thing is teachers still have problem to access updated book journals etc to help them teach English better This book is to help both teachers and students to enjoy the process of teaching and learning Materials given are mostly authentic from internet or medication information The authenticity of the material can give additional motivation for the students so they can apply it as day to day conversation in the nursing settings or in their future workplace The material in this book also can become references in doing translation social and professional conversation journal reading scientific writing and presentation ability

As Melodious As Gendang Muhammad Fatkhu Arifin, 2021-11-03 Gendang is a fine analogy for writing component Top head represents introduction barrel for body and bottom head for conclusion Besides the analogy of writing is like a gendang means that writing is the art of expression where it is not only for fiction but also for scientific writing that can be so entertaining too The Good Paper Lotte Rienecker, Peter Stray Jørgensen, Signe Skov, 2013 in Danish higher education

Ideas About Writing Merrill Glustrom Ph.D., 2022-09-28 Ideas About Writing is an entry level text for community college and high school writing classes Everything about this book is practical not theoretical and designed to help your writing in school and career The method the book uses for organizing writing revising and editing essays can be applied to every essay you write And the skills you learn will help you for the rest of your life The Practice of Rhetoric Debra Hawhee, Vessela Valiavitcharska, 2022-10-18 Rhetoric broadly conceived as the art of making things matter is both a practice and theory about that practice In recent decades scholars of rhetoric have turned to approaches that braid together poetics performance and philosophy into a practical art By practical art they mean methods tested in practice by trial and error with a goal of offering something useful and teachable This volume presents just such an account of rhetoric The account here does not turn away from theory but rather presumes and incorporates theoretical approaches offering a collection of principles assembled in the heat and trials of public practice The approaches ventured in this volume are inspired by the capacious conception of rhetoric put forth by historian of rhetoric Jeffrey Walker who is perhaps best known for stressing rhetoric s educational mission and its contributions to civic life The Practice of Rhetoric is organized into three sections designed to spotlight in turn the importance of poetics performance and philosophy in rhetorical practice The volume begins with poetics stressing the world making properties of that word in contexts ranging from mouse infested medieval fields to the threat of toxin

ridden streams in the mid twentieth century Susan C Jarratt for instance probes the art of ekphrasis or vivid description and its capacity for rendering alternative futures Michele Kennerly explores a little studied linguistic predecessor to prose logos psilos or naked speech exposing the early rumblings of a separation between poetic and rhetorical texts even as it historicizes the idea of clothed or ornamented speech In an essay on the almost magical properties of writing Debra Hawhee considers the curious practice of people writing letters to animals in order to banish or punish them thereby casting the epistolary arts in a new light Part 2 moves to performance Vessela Valiavitcharska examines the intertwining of poetic rhythm and performance in Byzantine rhetorical education and how such practices underlie the very foundations of oratory Dale Martin Smith draws on the ancient stylistic theory of Dionysius of Halicarnassus along with the activist work of contemporary poets Amiri Baraka and Harmony Holiday to show how performance and persuasion unify rhetoric and poetics Most treatments of philosophy and rhetoric begin within a philosophical framework and remain there focusing on old tools like stasis and disputation Essays in part 3 break out of that mold by focusing on the utility and teachability of rhetorical principles in education Jeanne Fahnestock and Marie Secor update stasis a classical framework that encourages aspiring rhetors to ask after the nature of things their facts and their qualities as a way of locating an argument s position Mark Garrett Longaker probes the medieval practice of disputation in order to marshal a new argument about why exactly John Locke detested rhetoric and the longstanding opposition between science and rhetoric as modes of proof that has lasting implications for the way argument works today Ranging across centuries and contexts the essays collected here demonstrate the continued need to attend carefully to the co operation of descriptive language and normative reality conceptual vocabulary and material practice public speech and moral self shaping The volume promises to rekindle long standing conversations about the public world making practice of rhetoric thereby enlivening anew its civic mission
