Reynolds,2017-12-15 Chinese students in the UK have been increasing in number for many years yet competition from other Western educators and increasing investment in China s own education system has led to concern that UK institutions may soon see a decline in their market share Dr Reynolds addresses this issue in Chinese Students in UK Further Education by attempting to understand students experiences from their perspective Beginning with an exploration of why these students choose to come and study in the UK and why they are coming at younger ages the book goes on to discuss topics such as risk technology and diversity in order to understand which factors have the greatest influence on where they choose to study and whether they choose to remain at an institution Drawing on data from two different education institutions providers of GCSE A level programmes for students aged 16 18 years Dr Reynolds attempts to understand what these students experience during their studies how they manage new social relationships and whether upon course completion they achieved the results they desired at the outset Moreover the book aims to ascertain whether the students feel in hindsight that the decision to risk investing in UK further education was right and what they might communicate about UK study to contacts in China and elsewhere The book examines what further education institutions do well and where they might improve to help develop Chinese students educational experiences As such it will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduates in the fields of further education sociology of education international and intercultural education and mobility studies Inequality and Flourishing Mariama Ifode-Blease ,2022-06-30 It is no surprise that Christians have long been involved in education the quest for human flourishing and wholeness is at the heart of the gospel and education is critical to that quest Good education has the power to transform our relationships with ourselves with each other with and within communities and ultimately between nation states But what is surprising is our theological silence in the face of the deep injustices which lie at the heart of our education system In Inequality and Flourishing Mariama Ifode Blease explores and exposes these inequalities and calls for a greater remembrance of the bountiful and daunting gift of stewardship we have as we educate young people Drawing on interviews she offers a fresh vision of education as being about giving children the best tools to be stewards of their minds and bodies our communities and ultimately our planet Debates in Geography Education Mark Jones,David Lambert,2017-09-07

Debates in Geography Education encourages early career teachers experienced teachers and teacher educators to engage with and reflect on key issues concepts and debates It aims to enable readers to reach their own informed judgements with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding The second edition is fully updated in light of the latest research policy and practice in the field as well as key changes to the curriculum and examination specifications Expert contributors provide a range of perspectives on international historical and policy contexts in order to deepen our understanding of significant debates in geography education Key debates include geography's identity as an academic discipline what constitutes knowledge in geography places and regional geography what it means to think geographically constructing the curriculum how we link assessment to making progress in geography the contribution of fieldwork and outdoor experiences technology and the use of Geographical Information school geography and employability understanding the gap between school and university geography evidence based practice and research in geography education The comprehensive rigorous coverage of these key issues together with carefully annotated selected further reading will help support and shape further research and writing Debates in Geography Education is a key resource that is essential reading for all teachers and researchers who wish to extend their grasp of the place of geography in education Mark Jones is Senior Lecturer in Education at the University of the West of England Bristol UK David Lambert is Professor of Geography Education at UCL Institute of Education London UK Much Promise: Successful Schools in England Barnaby Lenon,2017-04-24 Barnaby Lenon a former schoolmaster and headmaster who is chair of the Independent Schools Council takes an in depth look at the elements that make up a successful school He examines leading and latest research on school leadership and management looks at how teachers pupils parents and governors can achieve results and puts the spotlight on subjects exam systems and social mobility For his research he visited a number of schools that are achieving outstanding results John Perryn Primary School Acton Tollgate Primary School Newham King Solomon Academy Marylebone Burlington Danes Academy Hammersmith West London Free School Hammersmith Michaela Community School Wembley St Mary Magdalene Academy Islington Dixons Kings Academy Bradford Tauheedul Boys School Blackburn London Academy of Excellence Newham and Brighton College His analysis of their innovations and achievements provides an insight into some of

England's most successful schools      Finweek ,2006-07      Social Progress in Britain Anthony F. Heath,Elizabeth Garratt,Ridhi Kashyap,Yaojun Li,Lindsay Richards,2018-09-13 In his landmark 1942 report on social insurance Sir William Beveridge talked about the five giants on the road to reconstruction the giants of Want Disease Ignorance Squalor and Idleness Social Progress in Britain investigates how much progress Britain has made in tackling the challenges of material deprivation ill health educational standards lack of housing and unemployment in the decades since Beveridge wrote It also asks how progress in Britain compares with that of peer countries Canada France Germany Italy Japan Sweden and the USA Has Britain been slipping behind What has been the impact of the increased economic inequality which Britain experienced in the 1980s has rising economic inequality been mirrored by increasing inequalities in other areas of life too Have there been increasing inequalities of opportunity between social classes men and women and different ethnic groups And what have been the implications for Britain's sense of social cohesion      The Times Index ,2012 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement      HLP 120 - Overlooked and Left Behind: Improving the Transition from School to Work for the Majority of Young People The Stationery Office,2016 The transition from school into work is a vital point in the lives of young people Making a successful transition through a high quality and valued pathway can mean a successful career Becoming trapped in poor quality and under valued alternatives can mean a lifetime of poverty This report is about young people and social mobility and focuses on how to ensure that all young people are offered a high quality career path after they leave school We have found that the current policy structure means a large number of young people do not have good options and are not supported to make a choice which works for them and is successful An increasing number of young people leave school and go on to A Levels and university Of the others a small minority are at risk of dropping out of education employment or training the NEETS Successive governments have focused on these two groups for a long time But the majority of young people in the UK do not fall into either group They do not go to university they find jobs or they continue with some form of vocational education Despite making up the majority of the emerging workforce they have received much less attention It is these young people who are the focus of this report The current system for young people who do not follow an academic route is complex and incoherent with confusing incentives for young people and employers Careers advice and education are being delivered in a way which means that too many young people simply drift into further studies or their first job which often has no real prospect of progression      Caged in Chaos Victoria Biggs,2014-04-21 Written by a teenager with dyspraxia this practical guide helps young adults with dyspraxia and those around them get to grips with the social physical and psychological chaos caused by developmental co ordination disorders The new edition of this award winning book includes an update from the author on how dyspraxia affects her now as an adult      Exploring Social Inequality in the 21st Century Jennifer Jarman,Paul Lambert,2018-10-19 In a world where the effects of inequality occupy an increasingly prominent place on the public agenda this book provides up to date and thorough analysis from the perspective of a group of researchers at the forefront of social stratification analysis Exploring Social Inequality in the 21st Century is a clear and critical overview of current debates about social inequality It includes new information tools and approaches to conceptualising and measuring social stratification and social class as well as informative case studies Throughout the researchers describe the direct and indirect costs of social inequality Divided into two parts Conceptualising and Measuring Inequality and Costs and Consequences of Inequality in the areas of Education Employment and Global Wealth it includes new findings about the growth of wealth inequality in the G20 countries and a detailed examination of tax policies designed to reduce inequality without affecting economic growth With substantial contributions to the analysis of inequalities in education and explanations of the processes and consequences of social and gender based exclusion this book is essential reading for anyone interested in understanding contemporary social inequality This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Contemporary Social Science      Mathematics ,2024
