

Clay Story (10 Syllables Per Line Poem)

Strange how Life can be more than a story
Plots and characters bring a pleasant thrill
With laughter and tears, some sad and funny
Tragedies and heartaches may bring Pain's chill.

A finite journey men must tread along
But storms and trials make it clear to me
In the end there's a Home where we belong
Our purpose is -with God we're meant to be.

Life one page at a time is no wonder
God's the Author, so trust in Him today
He knows the best- His Love stays forever
And the choice is ours to make, if we may.

As clay to the Potter, let our life be-
A masterpiece for Him all men can see.

Psalm 119 David Noel Freedman,1999-01-01 The alphabetic acrostic is one of the most easily identifiable poetic forms in the Hebrew Bible Yet its very obviousness has tended to deflect deeper exploration of its structure and purpose There is no priori reason that alphabetic acrostics should be less creative expressive or complex than other psalms Thus the essays collected here investigate the acrostic format as a legitimate option for Israelite poets rather than as the refuge of uninspired epigones Freedman focuses on the technical aspects of the psalms metrics syllable counts colon length and symmetry within the psalm The results show that the poets creativity functioned at all levels from the individual line to the complete psalm Back Cover Isaiah 46, 47, and 48 Chris Franke,1994 Following the direction set by James Muilenberg and others Franke argues that the most fruitful approach to these three chapters in Deutero Isaiah is to read them with a literary dimension in mind Franke finds a highly creative unique hand in the creation of this section of Isaiah and believes that material in these chapters consists of unified literary works using a number of criteria to test and validate this hypothesis Along the way she also examines the nature and character of Hebrew poetry in these chapters considering it within the context of contemporary Hebrew Poetry studies Live, Love, Laugh with Me Through Poetry A to Z, Jacquelyn
