

LUMINARIA CEREMONY POEMS

HOPE

Dreams may come then dreams may go
But hope should never be let to run low
A bird will sing then fly away
But hope will last for way more than half a day
A tear will fall straight to the ground
But hope will float around and around
Touching ice will make it melt
But hope is something that can always be felt
Footprints are what we leave behind
But hope is what we always carry within our minds

Written by, Lynne Nunley, Cancer Survivor

ONE LITTLE CANDLE

It's just one little candle
One tiny flickering light
A challenge to the darkness
A small beacon in the night

It could be just a gentle touch
A reminder that you're there
Or a warm, compassionate hug
That shows you understand and care

Maybe it's a helping hand
A thoughtful, practical deed
A casserole, some laundry
Whatever meets the need

Sometimes it only takes your smile
To encourage and uplift
And should that smile lead to laughter
You've shared a precious gift

There's comfort in shared silence
Or in a softly spoken word
Or in taking time to listen
To feelings that must be heard
