The Palgrave Handbook of African Oral Traditions and Folklore Akintunde Akinyemi, Toyin Falola, 2021-03-05 This handbook offers the most comprehensive analytic and multidisciplinary study of oral traditions and folklore in Africa and the African Diaspora to date. Preeminent scholars Akintunde Akinyemi and Toyin Falola assemble a team of leading and rising stars across African Studies research to retrieve and renew the scholarship of oral traditions and folklore in Africa and the Diaspora just as critical concerns about their survival are pushed to the forefront of the field. With five sections on the central themes within orality and folklore including engagement ranging from popular culture to technology, methods to pedagogy, this handbook is an indispensable resource to scholars, students and practitioners of oral traditions and folklore preservation alike. This definitive reference is the first to provide detailed systematic discussion and up to date analysis of African oral traditions and folklore.

The Bones of the Ancestors are Shaking Russell Kaschula, 2002 In The Bones of the Ancestors Are Shaking Russell Kaschula provides an ample introduction to the subject of oral poetry both drawing on earlier accounts and presenting his own material, much of which has hitherto been unavailable in book form. Kaschula presents rich texts and translations of the Xhosa praise poetry for which southern Africa has long been famous, not only in the context of studies of African oral literature but also among comparative scholars of world literature. The texts and translations in this book are a valuable and attractive addition to the record, ranging as they do from nineteenth century examples to late twentieth century praises for Joe Slovo, F. W. de Klerk, the South African soccer squad or Nelson Mandela, the latter being a special focus of the volume. Professor Ruth Finnegan, The Open University, UK.

Francophone African Poetry and Drama Richard J. Gray II, 2014-09-17 Scholars examining literature from former French colonies sometimes view it wrongly as simply an outgrowth of colonial literature. By suggesting new ways to understand the multiple voices present, this book explores how Francophone African poetry and theatre, in particular since the 1960s, constitute both an organic cultural product and a reflection of the diverse African cultures in which they originate. Themes explored in five chapters include the many kinds of African identity formation, the resistance to former notions of literary composition as art, a remapping of social responsibility and the impact of globalization on Francophone Africa's participation in world economics, politics and culture. This study highlights the inner workings of Francophone African literature and suggests a canonization of modern Francophone works from a world perspective.

Oral Literature & Performance in Southern Africa Duncan Brown, 1999 This work draws together contributions from literary studies, anthropology, ethnomusicology and African language studies in an analysis of the complex functioning of oral texts and models in differing contexts. The work examines the continuing role of orality in modern society, the adaptation of oral models to printed forms and the ability of oral forms to talk back to the technology of print. ways in which auto biographical accounts situate and question the self in contemporary southern Africa The twenty seven interviews presented here consider both the ontological status and the representation of the self They remind us that the self is constantly under construction in webs of interlocation and that its status and representation are always in question The contributors therefore look at ways in which auto biographical practices contribute to placing understanding and troubling the self and selves in postcolonies in the current global constellation They examine topics such as the contexts conducive to production processes the contents and forms of auto biographical accounts and finally their impact on the producers and the audience In doing so they map out a multitude of variables including the specific historical juncture geo political locations social positions cultures languages generations and genders in their relations to auto biographical practices Those interviewed include the famous and the hardly known women and men writers and performers who communicate in a variety of languages Afrikaans English Xhosa isiZulu Sesotho and Yiddish An extensive introduction offers a general framework on the contestation of self through auto biography a historical overview of auto biographical representation in South Africa up to the present time an outline of theoretical and thematic issues at stake in southern Africa auto biography and extensive primary and secondary biographies Interviewees Breyten Breytenbach Dennis Brutus Valentine Cascarino Vanitha Chetty Wilfred Cibane Greig Coetzee J M Coetzee Paul Faber David Goldblatt Stephen Gray Dorian Haarhoff Rayda Jacobs Elsa Joubert K Limakatso Kendall Ester Lee Doris Lessing Sindiwe Magona Margaret McCord N Chabani Manganyi Zolani Mkiva Jonathan Morgan Es kia Mphahlele Rob Nixon Mpho Nthunya Robert Scott Gillian Slovo Alex J Thembela Pieter Dirk Uys Johan van Wyk Wilhelm Verwoerd David Wolpe D L P Yali Manisi

Stranger at Home Ashlee Neser, 2011 This book is about the poetry vision and deeply inhospitable context of one of South Africa's most talented praise poets The praise poet imbongi is a familiar cultural icon in contemporary South Africa Public events as diverse as presidential inaugurations openings of parliament fashion shows and boxing contests begin with the rousing declamations of charismatic imbongi Yet until the institution of majority rule praise poets who sought to shock their audiences with dangerous truths could claim none of the prestige enjoyed by their present day counterparts Under apartheid many praise poets either ceased to perform or abandoned the imbongi's duty to diagnose and criticize political and social ills There was however one brilliant Xhosa imbongi called David Manisi a poet widely acclaimed in his youth as the successor to the great SEK Mqhayi who refused to capitulate to the ease of silence or complicity As documented by Jeff Opland in The Dassie and the Hunter UKZN Press Manisi worked tirelessly and in embattled contexts to address his audiences with demands criticisms and aspirations they frequently misunderstood The author of five volumes of Xhosa poetry and performer of inspired and elegantly crafted izibongo praise poems Manisi saw himself as a man of multiple places allegiances and identities at a time when these markers of self were rigidly policed Manisi's entrance on the local Transkeian poetry scene was legendary He was for a time the most famous poet in Kaiser Mathanzima's court He also wrote the first published poem about Nelson Mandela in 1954 hailing him prophetically as Gleaming Road Despite these early accomplishments Manisi ended his career as a lonely performer in American and South African universities He never met Mandela his hero of old Ashlee Naser examines Manisi as an inventive negotiator of rural and urban spaces modernity and tradition performance and publication the local and the foreign
