

Friendship for a Season

We lay all night on the cold grass under sharp stars
and talked,
and as we talked
discovered how different we really were.

This was the closest we had ever been
and the start of our friendship's unravelling.

Funny, really, how we both went from that pin-bright moment into such separate lives.

Sometimes I'm sad
I could not love you.
But both of us have
that night –
that wide open talk,
those stars.
