Pretending to Communicate Herman Parret, 2012-10-25 No detailed description available for Pretending to Communicate

From Piltdown Man to Point Omega Noel Roberts, 2000 From Piltdown Man to Point Omega is a fresh comprehensive interdisciplinary and incisive analysis of the evolutionary theory of the French Jesuit priest and scientist Pierre Teilhard de Chardin The book enables the reader to access the thought of this enigmatic figure

Interactions Between Iranian and American Literatures Naghmeh Esmaeilpour, 2024-05-14 Introducing narrative mobility as a new approach in comparative studies of Iran and the US this book reinterprets the politics and aesthetics of relations between the nations through an analysis of Iranian and American authors The book focuses specifically on three authors Simin Daneshvar Shahriar Mandanipour and Don DeLillo who each employ narrative mobility to rethink intercultural negotiation addressing parallel issues in America and Iran from different but complementary perspectives The book analyzes the employment of parallel narrational techniques presenting physically and virtually mobile characters who embody their respective countries as they move from one culture to another The strange affinity between Iran and the US is ultimately revealed by viewing literary works as a contact zone through which the complicated relations and shared history of the two nations can be renegotiated On a more theoretical level the book reflects on the role of literature in particular the novel as a transnational medium as a bridge between nations in a period of globalization With its focus on cross cultural connections the book will be of interest to anyone studying or researching comparative literature US Iran relations and cultural studies generally

The Embers and the Stars Erazim Kohák, 2015-07-10 It is hard to put this profound book into a category Despite the author's criticisms of Thoreau it is more like Walden than any other book I have read The book makes great strides toward bringing the best insights from medieval philosophy and from contemporary environmental ethics together Anyone interested in both of these areas must read this book Daniel A Dombrowski The Thomist Those who share Kohák's concern to understand nature as other than a mere resource or matter in motion will find his temporally oriented interpretation of nature instructive It is here in particular that Kohák turns moments of experience to account philosophically turning what we habitually overlook or avoid into an opportunity and basis for self knowledge This is an impassioned attempt to see the vital order of nature and the moral order of our humanity as one

Ethics Art in Contemporary Anglo-American Fiction Sofie Behluli, 2025-05-30 This book addresses the recent surge of Anglo American novels about visual art since the 2010s and interprets it as a coming of age of an old literary sub genre which is here termed as the ekphrastic novel These novels are distinguished by their systematic use of ekphrasis which creatively and critically negotiates the intertwined aesthetics of literature and visual art By addressing the challenge of representing visual images such as photographs paintings and art installations with words these novels reveal a greater interest in exploring how and why we engage with art rather than merely depicting the art itself In this way ekphrastic novels present themselves as powerful practitioners and critics of contemporary image making The book focuses on four aspects emerging from ekphrastic passages value form affect and scale to explore critical questions posed by contemporary ekphrastic novels Who has the power to assign value today and at what cost Which social political historical cultural and ethical dimensions are obscured by certain forms and how can ekphrasis re introduce these aspects into public discourse What affects do images and artworks elicit and how do they reinforce or challenge existing value systems How can narrative scale uncover potential injustices in the interplay between life and art Moreover what insights do ekphrastic novels offer into contemporary reading habits and strategies By tracing a literary tradition from nineteenth century to contemporary fiction and offering detailed close readings of several critically acclaimed and widely read contemporary novels this book delves into the theoretical and practical intersections of ekphrasis and the novel Actology Malcolm Torry,2020-07-08

Two streams run through the Western philosophical stream one characterized by Being beings the unchanging the static and the unitary and the other by Action actions the changing the dynamic and the diverse The former might be represented by Parmenides Plato and much of what followed the latter by Heraclitus and by rather less of what followed The book explores the Action stream as it wound its way through history through Heraclitus Plato Aristotle Hegel Maurice Blondel Henri Bergson Pierre Teilhard de Chardin process philosophy and theology Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy Ludwig Wittgenstein and John Boys Smith The journey enables us to create the beginnings of an actology a way of seeing ourselves the universe and God in terms of actions in patterns rather than as beings that change Such an actology offers a complete alternative narrative far more in tune with the diverse and rapidly changing world in which we live than the ontology that has shaped philosophy theology and much else for the past two thousand years Hindi-English Expert Translator Hindi se English Translation Mai Step-By-Step Purn Dakshta Ke Liye SC Gupta,2018-04-20

Sameer Advani, LC, 2024-10-01 What can Christian theology claim about the place of other religions in God's providential plan for humanity How can it reconcile the universality of God's saving plan and the particularity of Christ and the Church What meaning is left to Christian existence and mission in a religiously pluralist world As priest theologian cardinal archbishop and pope Joseph Ratzinger reflected on these difficult questions for more than half a century and in a variety of contexts proffering an array of profound answers that are dispersed across his substantial literary corpus In Ratzinger on Religious Pluralism Sameer Advani assembles and synthesizes these reflections and answers of the late pontiff providing a systematic study of Ratzinger's theology of religions that attends to the scope of his larger historical philosophical and theological concerns The first part analyzes Ratzinger's critical engagement with various paradigms of religious pluralism whose accounts of religion Christianity and non Christian religions he found both phenomenologically and theologically wanting The second part in turn explores Ratzinger's positive proposal for a theology of religions which locates both Christianity and non Christian religions against the larger backgrounds of anthropological unity the human search for truth and divine providence Advani argues that while Ratzinger rejected the idea that other religions are salvific or on par with Christianity he recognized both their important role in God's providential plan and their suitedness to an assumption into the Church through mutual albeit asymmetric purification and enrichment Storied Deserts Celina Osuna, Aidan Tynan, 2024-06-28 Storied Deserts makes a crucial and critical intervention in the field of environmental humanities by showcasing an emerging body of research on desert places from around the world Deserts despite dominant stereotypes of wasteland and barrenness are culturally and
