

Circulate Your Pokémon into Battle

Different parts of your quest demand different skills from your team. Dip into Pokémon storage—14 storage boxes, each with space for 30 Pokémon—to swap members of your crew for others. Space for 420 Pokémon should be enough for a while; but hard-core Trainers may want to check out the much larger Pokémon Box (see page 32).

Swapping between your team and storage is simple: grab a Pokémon and drag it where you want to put it.

You can change the name and background pattern for each of the 14 storage boxes to fit your needs.

Connecting to Professor Oak

If you can't visit Professor Oak in person, you can always reach out and touch him via a PC connection. He'll be glad to analyze the current state of your Pokédex and advise you on how to broaden your collection even more. If he's opened up your National Pokédex, he'll also comment on how well you've filled it.
