Report On The World Social Situation 2007:

World Social Science Report 2010 United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, 2010-01-01 Social science from Western countries continues to have the greatest global influence but the field is expanding rapidly in Asia and Latin America particularly in China and Brazil In sub Saharan Africa social scientists from South Africa Nigeria and Kenya produce 75% of academic publications In South Asia barring some centres of excellence in India social sciences as a whole have low priority These are a few of the findings from World Social Science Report 2010 Knowledge divides Produced by the International Social Science Council ISSC and co published with UNESCO the Report is the first comprehensive overview of the field in over a decade Hundreds of social scientists from around the world contributed their expertise to the publication Gudmund Hernes President of the ISSC Adebayo Olukoshi Director of the United Nations African Institute for Economic Development and Planning IDEP Hebe Vessuri Director Venezuelan Institute for Scientific Research IVIC and Fran ois H ran Director of Research National Institute for Demographic Studies INED France are among the experts who presented the Report during its official launch at UNESCO Headquarters in Paris on 25 June 2010 The Employment Imperative United Nations. Department of Economic and Social Affairs, 2007 The 2007 issue of the Report on the World Social Situation focuses on the key role of productive employment and decent work in reducing poverty and promoting social development It surveys the global trends in employment and work as well as the socio economic context within which the world of work has evolved in the last two decades It recommends that policies and strategies to promote full employment and decent work take into account demographic and social changes The report emphasizes that political reforms and legal provisions are necessary to prevent discrimination in the workplace and in society in order to promote productive employment The report also points to the need to ensure universality of some form of social protection coverage in view of the fact that more and more workers are in employment situations that are casual informal and out of standard collective contracts by choice or by necessity Publisher s description

Paradoxes of Integration: Female Migrants in Europe Floya Anthias, Maria Kontos, Mirjana Morokvasic-Müller, 2012-11-02 This timely and innovative book analyses the lives of new female migrants in the EU with a focus on the labour market domestic work care work and prostitution in particular It provides a comparative analysis embracing eleven European countries from Northern UK Germany Sweden France Southern Portugal Spain Italy Greece Cyprus and Eastern Europe Poland Slovenia i e old and new immigration countries as well as old and new market economies It maps labour market trends welfare policies migration laws patterns of employment and the working and social conditions of female migrants in different sectors of the labour market formal and informal It is particularly concerned with the strategies women use to counter the disadvantages they face It analyses the ways in which gender hierarchies are intertwined with other social relations of power providing a gendered and intersectional perspective drawing on the biographies of migrant women The book highlights policy relevant issues and tries to uncover some of the contradictory assumptions relating to integration which it treats as a highly normative and problematic concept It reframes integration in terms of greater equalisation and democratisation entailed in the parameters of access participation and belonging pointing to its transnational and intersectional dimensions World Economic And Social Survey 2008 - Overcoming Economic Insecurity United Nations,2009 World Social Science Report 2013 UNESCO,ISSC,2013-11-15 Produced by the International Social Science Council ISSC and UNESCO and published by the OECD the 2013 World Social Science Report represents a comprehensive overview of the field gathering the thoughts and expertise of hundreds of social scientists from around the world This edition focuses on the transformative role of the social sciences in confronting climate and broader processes of environmental change and in addressing priority problems from energy and water biodiversity and land use to urbanisation migration and education The report includes 100 articles written by 150 authors from 41 countries all over the world Authors represent some 24 disciplines mainly in the social sciences The contributions highlight the central importance of social science knowledge for environmental change research as a means of understanding changing environments in terms of social processes and as framework for finding concrete solutions towards sustainability From Poverty to Power, 2nd Edition Duncan Green,2012 From Poverty to Power argues that a radical redistribution of power opportunities and assets rather than traditional models of charitable or government aid is required to break the cycle of poverty and inequality The forces driving this transformation are active citizens and effective states Published in association with Oxfam GB World Social Science Report 2013 Changing Global Environments International Social Science Council,United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization,2013-11-15 This book represents a comprehensive overview of the field gathering the thoughts and expertise of hundreds of social scientists from around the world This edition focuses on the transformative role of the social sciences in confronting climate and broader processes of environmental change

Economic Justice, Labor and Community Practice Louise Simmons,Scott Harding,2013-09-13 Facing economic upheaval and growing inequality people in local communities are fighting for economic justice Coalitions from labor grassroots community organizations the faith community immigrant communities and other progressive forces are emerging across the U S and Canada and winning better jobs benefits from local development and better working conditions A multi disciplinary group of scholars and activists provide background and analysis of these struggles and offer insights into successful community practice From the vantage points of community organizing labor studies political science urban studies social policy and active practitioners this volume presents both background on the problem of economic and social inequality and portrays cases of how community practice is being redefined how unions are pursuing their goals via labor community coalitions and the issues confronted as these new and vital alliances form Community practitioners from social work urban planning active union members and leaders labor educators and those in the partnerships they have formed all will find useful insights from these analyses This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Community Practice

Institutions & Economic Policies İrem Berksoy, Kutlu Dane, Milenko Popovic, 2017 World-Regional Social Policy and Global Governance Bob Deacon, Maria Cristina Macovei, Luk Van Langenhove, Nicola Yeates, 2009-12-04 This volume explores the case for and the prospects of the development of world regional social policies as integral elements of a pluralistic equitable and effective system of global governance Focusing on transnational regionalism this book examines the trajectory and crossing over of the three strands of scholarly analysis within the past decade which have given rise to this volume the perceived negative impact of neo liberal globalisation upon national social policy the need for but the difficulty of securing reforms in the institutions of global social governance and the increasing salience of the world regional level of governance in handling cross border issues The authors develop an intellectual and research agenda that will also inform the political development of an international programme concerned with the social policy dimensions of regional governance Combining the perspectives and collective expertise of a team of international scholars and activists the book features Theoretical and policy cases for a focus on regionalism and social policy A mapping and analysis of social policy dimensions of regional integration processes and formations in four continents An assessment of the regional dimensions of global agencies in particular of the UN ILO WHO UNESCO UNDP including the approach to regional social policy of the UN Regional Economic Commissions and Development Banks An articulation of a multi levelled conceptualisation of global social governance within which regional associations of countries plays a significant part The book will be of interest to students and scholars of social policy development studies international relations and political science especially those focused on the public policy dimensions of globalisation regionalisation and international development Global Movement Ruth Reitan, 2013-10-18 Critical research and theorizing on the Anti or Alter Globalization Movement has exploded over the last two decades This volume provides a platform for scholar activists themselves to share insights from engaged research and to critically reflect on movement histories and internal dynamics It also highlights ways in which activists are reaching beyond their geographical and issue boundaries to link with others in struggle to construct a broader global movement of the left and beyond Case studies span the social movement spectrum from more traditional concerns with class the primacy of the labor movement economic redistribution and justice through the so called new movements of identity and post materialist issues of peace the environment gender and indigenous struggles to the newest currents in post autonomy post anarchism and de or anti coloniality Together these studies show that what began in Chiapas with the Zapatista cry of basta ya as an anti globalization movement morphed for a time into alter globalization and global peace and justice and may now be emerging as a counter hegemonic project of and for global democratization This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations

Handbook on World Social Forum Activism Jackie Smith, Ellen Reese, Scott Byrd, Elizabeth Smythe, 2015-11-17 The World Social Forum WSF has become the focus for a diverse array of movements advancing alternative visions of globalisation The numerous WSF s have helped to connect activists in an increasingly dense network of advocates for radical social change

They have mobilised hundreds of thousands of people and may be one of the most important political developments of our time The Handbook of World Social Forum Activism brings together leading scholars of the social forum process from North America and Europe The collection contributes to the ongoing process of reflection from the WSF experience and is accessible to activists students and scholars alike Globalization and Transformations of Social Inequality Ulrike Schuerkens,2010-06-10 Offers analytical and comparative insights from case studies of social inequality in eleven countries within the major regions of the world World Economic and Social Survey ,2007 Serials Currently Received by the National Agricultural Library, 1975 National Agricultural Library (U.S.),1976 Immersive Environments, Augmented Realities, and Virtual Worlds: Assessing Future Trends in Education D'Agustino, Steven,2012-12-31 Technology has had direct impact on education in increasing the way that society continues to learn Applications of immersive environments virtual worlds and augmented reality have significant implications for how teaching and learning are achieved in contemporary education Immersive Environments Augmented Realities and Virtual Worlds Assessing Future Trends in Education brings together current research and performance in trends in education While examining cyber behavior and the use of virtual worlds immersive technologies and augmented realities aim to improve teaching and enhancing learning

Report on the World Social Situation ,1997 Employment Policies and Multilevel Governance Roger Blanpain,Juan Pablo Landa,Brian Langille,Philippe Auvergnon,2009-01-01 Compares multilevel manpower and social policy in five EU member states with one chapter also on the Canadian federal model Latin America in the Vortex of Social Change Henry Veltmeyer,James Petras,2019-04-10 This book explores the dynamics of the recent progressive cycle in Latin American politics associated with a red and pink tide of regime change With this cycle of centre left regimes oriented towards an alternative post neoliberal form of development now coming to an end coinciding with the end of a primary commodities boom the demand for natural resources exported in primary form on the world market the authors seek to explore the dynamics of the transition from a progressive cycle of regimes oriented towards the search for a more inclusive form of development towards what appears to be another swing in the pendulum of electoral politics towards the far right and a return to neoliberal orthodoxy Within the vortex of forces of change pushing towards both the Left and the Right Latin America lies at the centre of ongoing heated theoretical and political debates as to how to bring about a more inclusive and sustainable form of post neoliberal and post capitalist development Latin America in the Vortex of Social Change crucially aims to cut through these debates and explore the dynamics of the forces of change at work in the current conjuncture of capitalist development With reference to a theoretical framework based on the interaction of three different forms of capitalism capitalism as usual extractive capitalism narco capitalism the authors proceed to an analysis of the development and resistance dynamics of the development process that is unfolding on the Latin American political landscape The book will appeal to scholars of political sociology and political theory with an interest in the political economy of development and

Latin American affairs Social Movements and World-System Transformation Jackie Smith, MICHAEL GOODHART, Patrick Manning, John Markoff, 2016-10-26 At a particularly urgent world historical moment this volume brings together some of the leading researchers of social movements and global social change and other emerging scholars and practitioners to advance new thinking about social movements and global transformation Social movements around the world today are responding to crisis by defying both political and epistemological borders offering alternatives to the global capitalist order that are imperceptible through the modernist lens Informed by a world historical perspective contributors explain today's struggles as building upon the experiences of the past while also coming together globally in ways that are inspiring innovation and consolidating new thinking about what a fundamentally different more equitable just and sustainable world order might look like This collection offers new insights into contemporary movements for global justice challenging readers to appreciate how modernist thinking both colors our own observations and complicates the work of activists seeking to resolve inequities and contradictions that are deeply embedded in Western cultural traditions and institutions Contributors consider today's movements in the longue durée that is they ask how Occupy Wall Street the Arab Spring and other contemporary struggles for liberation reflect build upon or diverge from anti colonial and other emancipatory struggles of the past Critical to this volume is its exploration of how divisions over gender equity and diversity of national cultures and class have impacted what are increasingly intersectional global movements The contributions of feminist and indigenous movements come to the fore in this collective exploration of what the movements of yesterday and today can contribute to our ongoing effort to understand the dynamics of global transformation in order to help advance a more equitable just and ecologically sustainable world
