Tower of Pisa Is there really much to distinguish the package holiday from hipster city breaks to Berlin or Brooklyn Why do we engage our free time in an activity we profess to despise The World in a Selfie dissects a global cultural phenomenon For Marco D Eramo tourism is not just the most important industry of the century generating huge waves of people and capital calling forth a dedicated infrastructure and upsetting and repurposing the architecture and topography of our cities It also encapsulates the problem of modernity the search for authenticity in a world of ersatz pleasures D Eramo retraces the grand tours of the first globetrotters from Francis Bacon and Samuel Johnson to Arthur de Gobineau and Mark Twain before assessing the cultural meaning of the beach holiday and the UNESCO cide of major heritage sites The tourist selfie will never look the same again
