

GUIDELINES

When using roof carriers and accessories, be sure that understand the limitations. The points listed below will assist you in using the roof system and will encourage safety.

- For quality fit and safety, use only the recommended roof or accessories. Do not modify a roof rack fit, always check with dealer when obtaining a new vehicle. Use only approved accessories on your vehicle. Using other brands will void your warranty.

- Do not carry more than 100 kg (220 lbs.). Load carriers do not increase gain or load strength. Loads that exceed the roof carrier's weight limit will void your warranty. Check the weight of accessories used to carry cargo.

- Always make sure car doors are open when installing a roof rack system. Make sure all straps, bolts, screws, wires, and locks are fully attached, tightened and undamaged. Study bag straps, bolts, screws, straps, and locks that are particularly important for bags of food, children and babies. Check your load in steps during the trip to ensure continued loading security.

- Check load and load limit governing jurisdiction of export/import the weight of a vehicle, the weight of the carrier and weight of your cargo since too excessive brackets, bridges, and parking garages can affect the load. All cargo will affect the vehicle's driving behavior. Never drive with any lock, bolt, or lock in an open or extended position. All long loads built in, but not limited to, ladders, surf boards, kayaks, canoes, and kayakers must be tied down front and rear to the bumpers or tow hooks of the vehicle.

- Remove your roof and accessories when they are not in use and before entering automatic car washes.

- Always make sure that roof and accessories are properly secured. Use a graphic to make the carrier to help the load on designed to place ventilation and draft. Remove vehicles just if your vehicle is considered to be an extended period. Place at least one bag in the glove compartment.

- For safety in your vehicle and roof system, always at posted speed limit and traffic conditions. Always give space to the conditions of the road and the load being carried.

- Do not use roof carriers and accessories for purposes other than those for which they were designed. Do not exceed their carrying capacity. Please follow these guidelines in the product instructions and read the warranty.

- Consult with your dealer if you have any questions regarding the operation and limits of the product. Review all instructions and warranty information carefully.
