Osmer, 2008-07-02 Every church congregation encounters challenging situations some the same the world over and others specific to each church Richard Osmer here seeks to teach congregational leaders including but not limited to clergy the requisite knowledge and skills to meet such situations with sensitivity and creativity Osmer develops a framework for practical theological interpretation in congregations by focusing on four key questions What is going on in a given context Why is this going on What ought to be going on and How might the leader shape the context to better embody Christian witness and mission The book is unique in its attention to interdisciplinary issues and the ways that theological reflection is grounded in the spirituality of leaders Useful accessible and lively with lots of specific examples and case studies Osmer s Practical Theology effectively equips congregational leaders to guide their communities with theological integrity The Rites of Christian Initiation Maxwell E. Johnson, 2016-03-24 Originally published in 1999 The Rites of Christian Initiation was hailed for its clarity and comprehensiveness Kalian McDonnell OSB called it the best overall treatment of Christian initiation available and Paul Bradshaw predicted it would be the standard textbook on the subject for very many years to come. The current edition draws on new translations of early texts on baptism as well as recent scholarship on the early traditions in the East and West. It is sure to replace itself as the new standard reference on the rites of Christian initiation. Maxwell E. Johnson's expanded and revised text provides a more complete view of the history and interpretation of the rites in the Eastern Church, including two chapters that explore the pre-Nicene Eastern and Western traditions in detail. Revisiting the theology of baptism, this edition also provides more nuanced positions on the Eastern and Western traditions. Finally, recent liturgical developments in American Protestant churches, particularly Lutheran, as well as the ongoing development of the RCIA and confirmation practices of Catholics made it necessary to revisit the place and meaning of these rites in the church today. Maxwell E. Johnson, PhD, is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and an ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. He has published in Worship and is the editor of and contributor to Living Water, Sealing Spirit, Readings on Christian Initiation (Liturgical Press, 1995) and the revised and expanded edition of E. C. Whitaker Documents of the Baptismal Liturgy (Liturgical Press and S.P.C.K., 2003) to which this study serves as a companion volume.

The Many Presences of Christ Timothy Fitzgerald, David A. Lysik, 1999. Essays discussing the meaning of Christ's presence.

The Unnecessary Pastor Marva Dawn, Eugene Peterson, 1999-11-17. Best-selling authors Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson offer encouragement to pastors. Pastors are strategically placed to counter the culture. No other profession looks so inoffensive but is in fact so dangerous to the status quo. Their weapon: A gospel that is profoundly countercultural. But standing firm in today's world isn't easy. Powerful forces, both subtle and obvious, attempt to domesticate pastors to make them in a word unnecessary. In this book, two of today's most respected authors help pastors recover their gospel identity and maintain a pure vision of Christian leadership. Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson reconnect pastors with the biblical texts that will train them as countercultural servants of the gospel. Marva Dawn looks to Paul's letter to the Ephesians for instruction for churches seeking to live faithfully in today's world. In turn, Eugene Peterson explores Romans 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus, drawing from them the correct view of pastoral identity.

The Evangelizing Church Richard H. Bliese, Craig Van Gelder. The Evangelizing Church moves from theory to practice as it relates the theology of evangelism to the life of congregations that are seeking to proclaim the gospel in the emerging postmodern context. It provides congregations with perspectives on how to utilize this theology in shaping the practice of evangelism within their church life.

A Royal Waste of Time Marva J. Dawn, 1999. In this book, Marva Dawn insists that churches need to engage in a serious process of community discernment concerning worship in order to employ the best tools and forms, and she offers reflections to further the discussion. Each part of A Royal Waste of Time begins with a sample Scripture-based sermon, since Dawn emphasizes that the church's worship must follow biblical guidelines and form a biblical people. From publisher's description.

The Sense of the Call Marva J. Dawn, 2006-02-21. In Keeping the Sabbath Wholly, Dawn introduced the vital Sabbath aspects of resting ceasing feasting and embracing Now she expands these into a way of life for serving God and the Kingdom every single day of the week Practical Life      The Teaching Ministry of Congregations Richard Robert Osmer,2005-01-01 In this important and groundbreaking book Osmer develops a practical theology of the teaching ministry He begins with the Apostle Paul identifying in Paul s letters to his congregations the core tasks of the teaching ministry      Baptism Today Thomas F. Truscott,2003-10-28 This resource examines the historical and theological background of the rites used for baptism and confirmation in the Lutheran Book of Worship 1978 The introduction of the LBW as the standard book in Lutheran worship not only provided North American Lutherans with a new rite for baptism but also new understandings of the meaning of baptism Baptism was suddenly seen as being central to Christian identity rather than merely serving as an infant rite of passage performed occasionally in private It also allowed for full participation of the liturgical assembly and employed a greater use of ritual and gesture Simultaneously the greater stress on baptism was accompanied by an attempt to downplay the theological and liturgical importance of confirmation the centerpiece of Lutheran spiritual formation for those persons baptized in infancy Confirmation was revised as the Affirmation of Baptism allowing it only a secondary role as a part of the original rite of baptism Truscott argues that these changes have affected how North American Lutherans think about and practice Christian initiation He also critically evaluates the LBW rites and makes proposals for the future renewal of Christian initiation in North American Lutheranism
