

Alliteration Poem

Alliteration is the repetition of the first consonant sound in words. You can use these sentences to create a poem. Good examples are tongue twister such as:

Peter Piper picked a pack of pickled peppers

She sells sea shells by the sea shore

Leo the Lion

Leo the lion loved the outdoors,
He had four very mighty paws.

Leo liked the little lightening bugs at night,
During the day they were out of sight.

Mentor Texts Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10 In their first edition of Mentor Texts authors Lynne Dorfman and Rose Cappelli helped teachers across the country make the most of high quality children's literature in their writing instruction. Mentor Texts: Teaching Writing Through Children's Literature K-6 2nd Edition the authors continue to show teachers how to help students become confident accomplished writers by using literature as their foundation. The second edition includes brand new Your Turn Lessons built around the gradual release of responsibility model offering suggestions for demonstrations and shared or guided writing. Reflection is emphasized as a necessary component to understanding why mentor authors chose certain strategies, literary devices, sentence structures, and words. Dorfman and Cappelli offer new children's book titles in each chapter and in a carefully curated and annotated Treasure Chest. At the end of each chapter a Think About It, Talk About It, Write About It section invites reflection and conversation with colleagues. The book is organized around the characteristics of good writing: focus, content, organization, style, and conventions. The authors write in a friendly and conversational style employing numerous anecdotes to help teachers visualize the process and offer strategies that can be immediately implemented in the classroom. This practical resource demonstrates the power of learning to read like writers.
