

Garbage Crown

My water bottle shoes
they should not come as news.
It matches just so well
with my tin can lid belt.

Do you too, think it's "insane?"

When you see my ~~garbage~~ ^{trash} bag mane?

Though i'll admit it really itches wearing pidgeon feather britches:

I prefer my trash can dorm to observing social norms.

So don't wrinkle your nose and frown,

When you see my

Garbage crown.

Ann Gookin,2005-09-01 In our poetry unit this year our sixth graders read and memorized famous poems were exposed to many different types of poetry and tried their hand at writing their own poetry Some of those poems include tanka cinquain haiku acrostic bio concrete Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas Sarah J. Donovan,Kim Johnson,Anna J. Small Roseboro,Barbara Edler,Gayle Sands,2025-09-01 Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas reimagines formative assessment by advocating for a dynamic poetic approach that delves into students meaning making processes It is a guide for teachers seeking innovative approaches to formative assessment promoting a holistic creative reflective and collaborative learning environment It challenges the limitations of traditional worksheets and quizzes urging educators to move beyond seeking restrictive answers and embrace students texts as pathways to understanding The authors put forward poetry as a vigorous tool and writing poetry as an act to foster deep learning across content areas Practical examples of acrostic poems haiku and pantoum demonstrate the adaptability of poetic forms to diverse subjects Through adaptable lesson plans that can be used across history math world languages ELA and science the book encourages intentional poetic writing to learn activities and explores how poetry might present itself as a short creative assessment tool that helps teachers see what their students know and can do while also offering them the space to make new meaning in their original poetry This book is a key resource for in service educators teaching grades 6 12

A Life with Poetry Joan Peskin,David I. Hanauer,2023-02-22 This volume examines the development of poetic literacy including the specific processes used by expert poetry readers and professional poets In doing so it provides a much needed synthesis of research findings across diverse domains such as human development the scientific study of literature cognitive psychology neuroscience psycholinguistics and education An important feature of the book is its exploration of the new and relatively unexplored area of research on the development of poetic writing Both theoretical and practical the volume will be of interest to researchers as well as educators The detailed explication of expert knowledge and the trajectory through which relative novices become relative experts should allow educators to make evidence based decisions Valuable guidelines for developmentally appropriate practice in pedagogical settings are provided to better optimize learning and inspire students from preschool to graduate school and beyond Children's Poetry Preferences C. Ann Terry, 1974 Practice with Purpose Debbie Diller, 2005 In her 30 years as an educator Debbie Diller has closely examined classroom practice asking Why What s the purpose Watching primary students work successfully at literacy work stations she wondered with teachers Why don t we have upper grade students doing this Could we kick it up a notch In her new book Debbie shows teachers of grades three to six how to structure their classrooms so that all students can be successful doing meaningful independent work using literacy work stations Practice with Purpose offers guidance on establishing routines for independent reading and response writing as well as step by step instructions on how to set up and manage a variety of hands on literacy work stations appropriate for intermediate students Each chapter includes how to introduce the station innovative ways to use materials what to model to guarantee independence how to troubleshoot assessment and accountability ideas how the station supports student achievement on state tests reflection questions for professional development The extensive appendix includes time saving tools such as management board icons graphic organizers task cards and recommended Web sites and children s literature Poetry 2006 by 6th Grade Students of Fairfield Middle School Fairfield Middle School, 2006-11 I write to discover my soul I read to discover yours The poems you are about to read are written and selected by sixth graders from the Fairfield Middle School in Fairfield Iowa These students experimented with many types of poems including tanka cinquain haiku acrostic bio concrete diamante ocean research magazine haiku couplets title down color poems holiday and limericks They did a wonderful job creating poems that expressed who they really are and I m proud of their willingness to share this part of themselves with others I hope you enjoy reading their work as much as I have They should be very proud of their accomplishments I am also thrilled for my students to have this opportunity to share their poetry with the world Ann Gookin 6th Grade Language Arts Teacher Communication is vital in today s society It comes in many forms these days from conversing to e mail One form of communication is writing and one form of writing is poetry Poetry doesn t seem to get the recognition it deserves in this fast paced world It is a form of writing that is personal and demands time to read it It needs to be understood or felt by the reader It can represent self exploration for the author while it can open feelings in the reader The poem becomes the symbol of communication on many levels to many people We hope these poems will communicate to the readers in some meaningful way as they are read This collection of poetry was created by the 6th grade students of Fairfield Middle School It got started when a fifth grade student brought his poem home to his mother to read His poem had been published in a book like this one His mother is one of our sixth grade Language Arts Reading teachers She saw it as an exciting project for the sixth graders at FMS The rest is as they say history This book of poetry communicates to all that take the time to read it Those who contributed their work hope you will let their poems communicate to you The collection of poems in this book started by sharing and we hope you will share it with others as you enjoy it yourself Gary Henry FMS
