Jacob Tucker's perspective is turned on its head when he leaves his ranch in 1867 to travel to 2013. The fancy metal wagons and flying carriages are mind-boggling, but what truly changes his life is meeting Allie Whitewater. She has the mouth of a cowpuncher, the body of an angel, and the temper of the Devil himself, so of course she's the woman for him. Jacob has never been more certain of anything in his life, and once she comes back with him to his own time, life will be damn near perfect. He's got a fool-proof plan: he'll just kidnap her long enough to make her never want to leave. Allie Whitewater plans on spending the rest of her life on the ranch her father started. She's gonna run it and make it better than ever, at least that was the plan before she went on a vacation to the past, and a sexy cowboy decided to make it difficult to leave, and that's only the beginning of her troubles.

Allie long ago embraced both the Native American heritage of her father and the white heritage of her mother, but now lives depend on how Allie deals with her ancestors. What will it take to prove to both the white army and the red skins that she is a force to be reckoned with? History won't stand still for two souls separated by time. Can the past handle a modern woman? Or will it destroy the very thing that makes her the perfect partner for her cowboy, her warrior spirit?
