Handbook of Research Methods in Corporate Social Responsibility David Crowther, Linne Lauesen, 2017-12-29 Corporate social responsibility now touches upon most aspects of the interaction between business and society The approaches taken to research in this area are as varied as the topics that are researched yet this is the first book to address the whole range of methods available The book identifies the methods available evaluates their use and discusses the circumstances in which they might be appropriate It also includes forward thinking guidance from experienced academics on the future directions of research in the area      Research Methods for Sport Management James Skinner,Allan Edwards,Ben Corbett,2014-10-30

Research methods courses have become a compulsory component of most degree programs in sport management This is the first introductory research methods textbook to focus exclusively on sport management Through the use of examples cases and data taken from the real world of sport management it opens up a traditionally dry area of study helping the student to understand the vital importance of sound methodology in their studies and subsequent professional practice The book covers the full range of quantitative and qualitative methods across the whole span of the research process from research design and the literature review to data analysis and report writing Every chapter contains a range of useful features to aid student learning including summaries discussion questions and guides to further resources as well as examples drawn from contemporary sport around the world Research Methods for Sport Management is an essential course text for all sport management students and an invaluable reference for any sport management professional involved in operational research

Critical Reflexive Research Methodologies ,2023-11-07 While all oppressions are equal some are more equal than others This statement borrowed from George Orwell s Animal Farm and written and marinated to fit within and without our call for ethical research helps us to see how contemporary research processes are singular and fail to account for the complex histories realities and values of marginalized communities Such a failure to account and re member has had massive symbolic and material consequences on marginalized communities illustrated by the number of deaths we continue to witness everyday Those deaths have been sanctioned and authorized by the ways in which we come to know what we know and how that is imprinted in our policies and everyday existence This book looks at knowledge production as a process of giving an account of those losses in ways that help knowledge production to be a mechanism of remembering cognitive and re membering communi ity or bring together solidarity a form of epistemological and ontological demonstration Ethical knowledge production becomes a process of relationship that remembers the histories values and realities of people in ways that are transformative and political Such an expression fails to arrive at an end and rather recognizes knowledge production as endless production of knowledge Such a process goes against neoliberal mechanism of commodifying knowledge for sale in the market This edited collection attempts to engage with current qualitative research methodologies and approaches from a critically and ethically reflexive standpoint This work seeks to unravel colonial practices that continue to hide within qualitative approaches in ways that invite a new reimagining of working within and without qualitative method ologies This edited collection therefore seeks to bring to the fore the lived experiences of the studied to their storied life in ways that are ethically and politically congruent This work therefore seeks to bring forth Foucault s subterranean narratives steeped in contexts and experiences that can critically invert the dominant colonial capitalist state practices in existing research      The Rise of Small-Scale Development Organisations Hanne Haaland,Sara Kinsbergen,Lau Schulpen,Hege Wallevik,2023-03-02

This edited volume discusses the rise positioning and role of small scale voluntary development organisations in the Global North This book presents and reflects upon unique data and analyses of a growing global community of researchers involved in this field of study located in a diverse set of countries in the Global North and South This book presents a multi cited perspective on this alternative development actor The first part of the book starts from a northern perspective and from an analysis of how and why citizens actively engage in the field of international development Starting from this understanding of this particular development actor the second part will delve into the role of these actors in the Global South particularly related to topics such as partnerships embeddedness legitimacy accountability exit strategies sustainability and solidarity all themes central to debates in the field of development Through examples from different countries in the Global South part two explores these themes from different standpoints and thus also provides the reader with thick descriptions

Student's Guide to Writing Dissertations and Theses in Tourism Studies and Related Disciplines Tim Coles, David Timothy Duval, Gareth Shaw, 2013 This book intends to take the stress and anxiety out of doing a dissertation in tourism studies and related disciplines The dissertation process is examined from the germination of an idea to the submission presentation and assessment of the final document We offer a framework for conducting dissertations in the English speaking world which students can adopt to varying degrees in their research at the undergraduate and masters levels We aim to debunk the popular myths and common pitfalls of doing a dissertation Rather than view the dissertation as a single overwhelming project the dissertation is presented as a series of more modest manageable yet crucially inter linked tasks that all students can successfully complete through effective time management
