Latina Evangélicas Loida Martell-Otero, Zaida Maldonado Pérez, Elizabeth Conde-Frazier, 2013-01-15 Latina Evangelicas A Theological Survey

from the Margins is a constructive and postcolonial examination of the theology of Protestant Latinas who reside in the United States. Written by three Latinas who have pastored and who teach in Latina o communities, the book seeks to expand beyond Latina feminist and mujerista voices to include those whose perspectives have not yet been heard. It thus introduces an important theological perspective to a wider audience and provides an important resource that has been lacking for evangelicas/os and other marginalized groups who study in various theological programs. Key terminology such as evangelica is defined throughout and a glossary is included for non-Spanish speaking readers. Each chapter considers theological themes important to the Latina Protestant worshiping community, beginning with a constructive discussion of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit and followed by the doctrines of salvation and Jesus Christ, the Trinity, the church, Scripture, and the last things/eschatology. Given that one of the characteristics of Latina o theologies is their dialogical and collaborative nature, the book concludes with a conversation among the three authors about the theological thinking that took place in its composition. Study questions are included at the end of each chapter.
