

For My Grandmother

*I have memories that make me smile,
Of a young child who longed to be,
By the side of a Grandmother...so adored,
The child that I speak of was me.*

*You were the Grandmother filled with love,
Who had such a wonderful way,
And time spent with you was a special gift,
Each day was a magical day!*

*I can recall all the things you did,
And the gentleness of your touch.
You had a talent for letting me know,
That you loved me...ever so much!*

*And the impact you had upon my life,
Continues to this day still.
I loved you then, I love you now,
And always, yes, always...I will!*

Poems For Granddaughter From Grandma:

Celebrating Poetry Across the K-12 Curriculum Napoli, Mary, Day, Deanna, Ward, Barbara A., 2025-07-16 Poetry provides opportunities to explore the universal and common experiences that connect us as human beings. When teachers infuse poetry into their classroom, it can foster compassion, develop interdisciplinary connections, and support literacy instruction. However, not all teachers use poetry in their classroom, either because they are not aware of the value of poetry or because they have not had positive experiences with poetry. Given the importance of sharing poetry with today's youth, educators must feel confident in evaluating well-written poetry and how to weave poetry from award-winning poets to support interdisciplinary connections. Celebrating Poetry Across the K-12 Curriculum aims to ensure that poetry for children is not neglected as part of the curriculum and to help educators feel more confident in their understanding of children's poetry, its relevance to children's lives, and its importance to supporting pedagogical connections. Featuring interviews with well-known poets, this resource also showcases the latest pedagogical and scholarly research supporting the integration of poetry in the K-12 classroom. Covering topics such as science content, romanticism, and diversity recognition, this book is an excellent resource for educators, classroom teachers, literacy specialists, librarians, professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, and more.

Family Ties and Tales (Final Edition) Doug Boylan, I have been working about 40 years gathering family stories and digging through libraries and computer archives tracking the history of my families' ancestors. It's the age-old question of where did I come from. I was able to find some interesting tales about who our ancestors were, what they did, and how we ended up where we are.

Saved by a Poem Kim Rosen, 2009-10-01 Can someone really be saved by a poem? In Kim Rosen's book, the answer is a resounding Yes. Poetry, the most ancient form of prayer, is a necessary medicine for our times: a companion through difficulty, a guide when we are lost, a salve when we are wounded, and a conduit to an inner source of joy, freedom, and insight. Whether you are a lover of poetry or have yet to discover its power, Rosen offers a new way to experience a poem. She encourages you to feel the poem as you might an affirmation or sacred text, which can align every level of your being. In an uncertain world, Saved by a Poem is an emphatic call to cultivate the ever-renewable resources of the heart. Through poetry, the unspeakable can be spoken, the unendurable endured, and the miraculous shared. Weaving teaching, story, verse, and memoir, Rosen guides you to find a poem that speaks to you so you can take it into your life and become a voice for its wisdom in the world. Inspirational audio download included. Featuring the voices of well-known authors reading a favorite poem and discussing its personal significance: Joan Borysenko, Andrew Harvey, Jane Hirshfield, Marie Howe, Grace Yi-Nan Howe, Robert Holden, Stanley Kunitz, Elizabeth Lesser, Thomas Moore, Christiane Northrup, Cheryl Richardson, Kim Rosen, and Geneen Roth.

A Grandmother's Love seeks to let them know that they are not alone and to communicate to grandchildren that they are blessings to their grandparents' hearts. Dawn Duke, 2008. This study examines Afro-Cuban and Afro-Brazilian women writers as well as analysing the roles of women of African descent in Cuban and Brazilian literature. Initially, literary imagination locked women into circumscribed roles as a result of hierarchies embedded in slavery and colonialism and sustained by hierarchical theories on race and gender. The discussion illustrates how these negative aspects have influenced the mainstream literary imagination that contrasts with the self-portrayals created by women writers themselves. Even as there continues to be disadvantageous constructions there is no doubt that a modification has occurred over time in images representation and articulation It is a change directly associated with the instances when women themselves are the writers The historiographic image of the Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian woman as a written object is ideologically replaced by a vision of her as a writing subject It is here that the vision of a creative multifaceted and diversified literature becomes important
