Wonder and Exile in the New World Alex Nava, 2015-01-14 In Wonder and Exile in the New World Alex Nava explores the border regions between wonder and exile particularly in relation to the New World It traces the preoccupation with the concept of wonder in the history of the Americas beginning with the first European encounters goes on to investigate later representations in the Baroque age and ultimately enters the twentieth century with the emergence of so called magical realism In telling the story of wonder in the New World Nava gives special attention to the part it played in the history of violence and exile either as a force that supported and reinforced the Conquest or as a voice of resistance and decolonization Focusing on the work of New World explorers writers and poets and their literary descendants Nava finds that wonder and exile have been two of the most significant metaphors within Latin American cultural literary and religious representations Beginning with the period of the Conquest especially with Cabeza de Vaca and Las Casas continuing through the Baroque with Cervantes and Sor Juana In s de la Cruz and moving into the twentieth century with Alejo Carpentier and Miguel ngel Asturias Nava produces a historical study of Latin American narrative in which religious and theological perspectives figure prominently Women and Contemporary World Literature Deborah Fillerup Weagel, 2009 Many women in cultures throughout the world exhibit resilience and power in the face of obstacles and vicissitudes From colonial New Spain to postcolonial Africa and India Women and Contemporary World Literature examines ways in which women in literature function within their specific culture and circumstances to confront the challenges they encounter In spite of fragmentation in their lives much like quiltmakers they piece together the scraps of their existence to form an integrated and complete whole With its focus on power fragmentation and metaphor and a strong interdisciplinary approach this book offers a unique perspective to scholars teachers and students of comparative literature contemporary world literature colonial and postcolonial literature women s studies interdisciplinary studies and literature and cultural studies Selected

Philosophical and Scientific Writings Emilie Du Châtelet, 2009-09-15 Though most historians remember her as the mistress of Voltaire Emilie Du Châtelet 1706-49 was an accomplished writer in her own right who published multiple editions of her scientific writings during her lifetime as well as a translation of Newton s Principia Mathematica that is still the standard edition of that work in French Had she been a man her reputation as a member of the eighteenth century French intellectual elite would have been assured In the 1970s feminist historians of science began the slow work of recovering Du Châtelet s writings and her contributions to history and philosophy For this edition Judith P Zinsser has selected key sections from Du Châtelet s published and unpublished works as well as related correspondence part of her little known critique of the Old and New Testaments and a treatise on happiness that is a refreshingly uncensored piece of autobiography making all of them available for the first time in English The resulting volume will recover Châtelet s place in the pantheon of French letters and culture Experiencing Time in the Early Modern Hispanic World Ariadna García-Bryce, 2023-09-20 This book considers the new ways time was experienced in the sixteenth and seventeenth century Hispanic world in the framework of global Catholicism It underscores the crucial role that the imitation of Christ plays in modeling how representative writers physically and mentally interiorize temporal impermanence as the Messiah s suffering body becomes a paradigmatic as well as malleable marker of the avatars of earthly history Particular attention is paid to the ways in which authors adapt Christ centered conceptions of existence to accommodate both a volatile post eschatological world and the increased dominance of mechanical clock time As novel means of communing with Christ emerge so too do new modes of sensing and understanding time unleashing unprecedented cultural and literary reinvention This is demonstrated through close analyses of writings by such influential figures as Saint Ignatius of Loyola Saint Teresa of vila Carlos de Sig enza y G ngora and Sor Juana In s de la Cruz The Cambridge Companion to Latin American Poetry Stephen M. Hart,2018-03-22 This Companion provides a chronological survey of Latin American poetry analysis of modern trends and six succinct essays on the major figures
