The Musicalization of Fiction Werner Wolf, 2023-12-11 This volume is a pioneering study in the theory and history of the imitation of music in fiction and constitutes an important contribution to current intermediality research Starting with a comparison of basic similarities and differences between literature and music the study goes on to provide outlines of a general theory of intermediality and its fundamental forms in which a more specialized theory of the musicalization of narrative literature based on contemporary narratology and a typology of the forms of musico literary intermediality are embedded It also addresses the question of how to recognize a musicalized fiction when reading one and why Sterne's Tristram Shandy contrary to what has been previously said is not to be regarded as a musicalized fiction In its historical part the study explores forms and functions of experiments with the musicalization of fiction in English literature After a survey of the major preconditions for musicalization the increasing appreciation of music in 18th and 19th century aesthetics and its main causes exemplary fictional texts from romanticism to postmodernism are analyzed Authors interpreted are De Quincey Joyce Woolf A Huxley Beckett Burgess and Josipovici Whilst the limitations of a transposition of music into fiction remain apparent experiments in this field yield valuable insights into mainly a mimetic and formalist aesthetic tendencies in the development of more recent fiction as a whole and also show to what extent traditional conceptions of music continue to influence the use of this medium in literature The volume is of relevance for students and scholars of English comparative and general literature as well as for readers who take an interest in intermediality or interart research Literary Word Fausto Ciompi, Roberta Ferrari, Laura Giovannelli, 2018-07-27 Dealing with the interconnections between music and the written word this volume brings into focus an updated range of analytical and interpretative approaches which transcend the domain of formalist paradigms and the purist assumption of music's non referentiality Grouped into three thematic sections these fifteen essays by Italian British and American scholars shed light on a phenomenological network embracing different historical socio cultural and genre contexts and a variety of theoretical concepts such as intermediality the soundscape notion and musicalisation At one end of the spectrum music emerges as a driving cultural force an agent cooperating with signifying and communication processes and an element functionally woven into the discursive fabric of the literary work The authors also provide case studies of the fruitful musico literary dialogue by taking into account the seminal role of composers singer songwriters and performers From another standpoint the music in literature and literature in music dynamics are explored through the syntax of hybridisations transcoding experiments and iconic analogies Focus and Secondary Predication Susanne Winkler, 1997 The architecture of the human language faculty has been one of the main foci of the linguistic research of the last half century This branch of linguistics broadly known as Generative Grammar is concerned with the formulation of explanatory formal accounts of linguistic phenomena with the ulterior goal of gaining gives particular attention to the four novels and one novella published between 1920 and 1925 what Game calls Lawrence's Australian period shedding new light on Lawrence's attitudes towards Australia in general and more specifically towards Australian Aborigines women and colonialism He revisits key aspects of Lawrence's development as a novelist and thinker including the influence of Darwin and Lawrence's rejection of eugenics Christianity psychoanalysis and science While Game concentrates on the Australian novels such as Kangaroo and The Boy in the Bush he also uncovers the Australian elements in a range of other works including Lawrence's last novel Lady Chatterley's Lover Lawrence lived in Australia for just three months but as Game shows it played a significant role in his quest for a way of life that would enable regeneration of the individual in the face of what Lawrence saw as the moral collapse of modern industrial civilisation after the outbreak of World War I
