Addressing Special Educational Needs and Disability in the Curriculum: Design and Technology Louise Davies, 2017-09-28. The SEND Code of Practice 2015 reinforced the requirement that all teachers must meet the needs of all learners. This topical book provides practical, tried and tested strategies and resources that will support teachers in making design and technology lessons accessible and interesting for all pupils, including those with special educational needs. The author draws on a wealth of experience to share her understanding of special educational needs and disabilities and show how the design and technology teacher can reduce or remove any barriers to learning. Offering strategies that are specific to the context of design and technology teaching, this book will enable teachers to better identify a student's particular learning requirements, set inclusive design and making assignments which allow all students to participate and succeed, build students' confidence in using a range of materials and tools, assist with design tasks where pupils take ownership of their work and learning, adapt the classroom environment to meet the needs of pupils, create a mutually supportive classroom which maximises learning opportunities. An invaluable tool for continuing professional development, this text will be essential for design and technology teachers and their teaching assistants seeking to include and motivate all pupils in their lessons, regardless of their individual needs. This book will also be of interest to secondary SENCOs, senior management teams and ITT providers. In addition to free online resources, a range of appendices provide design and technology teachers with a variety of pro forma and activity sheets to support effective teaching. This is an essential tool for design and technology teachers and teaching assistants and will help to deliver successful inclusive lessons for all pupils. The Art of Peaceful Teaching in the Primary School Michelle MacGrath, 2013-12-19. First Published in 2000. This book helps primary teachers improve behaviour, preserve motivation and foster cooperation by developing positive relationships with pupils and their parents, creating a calm environment for learning and using non-confrontational communication skills. It outlines an empathetic approach to understanding and managing disruptive behaviour that avoids conflict and demoralisation. As such, it is an ideal text for student teachers, newly qualified teachers and more experienced practitioners. Advanced Submarine Sonar Technology United States.
