America and the Production of Islamic Truth in Uganda Yahya Sseremba, 2023-05-16. This book investigates the ways in which the war on terror has transformed the postcolonial state in Africa. Taking American intervention in Islamic education in Uganda as the entry point, the book demonstrates how state control over Islamic truth production and everyday Muslim life has increased. During the colonial period, the Muslims in Uganda were governed in two ways: partly as lesser citizens within the Christian-dominated civil sphere and partly as members of a distinct Muslim domain. In this domain, a local system of Islamic education developed with a degree of autonomy that reflected the limits of the colonial state in shaping the Muslim subject. In the subsequent postcolonial period, systems of patronage and clientelistic networks dominated, and Muslim leaders were co-opted by the state but without much real interference in the day-to-day lives of ordinary Muslims. However, as part of the war on terror, the US State Department seeks to bring the mechanisms of Islamic truth production, especially the madrasa, under direct state control and civil society scrutiny. This book argues that the Muslim domain as a separate entity is coming to an end as it is being absorbed into the civil sphere, unifying the state's domination of society. The book also analyzes local Ugandan Muslim initiatives to modernise and contextualize their own education and religion and how these initiatives are shaped by and transcend the dominant power. A thorough exploration of US foreign policy and Islamic education, this book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of Political Studies, African Studies and Religious Studies.

Islam: Is it a Belief that Agrees with the Mind, Heart or Conscience? & What about the Christianity Belief? Are there questions and Answers too? Sheikh Moumen, 2024-11-05. A bruised reed he will not break and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out till he has brought justice through to victory. Matthew 12:20.

Islam's Jesus Zeki Saritoprak, 2020-05-01. Accessible and readable. Spotlights an important theological theme in a way that both illuminates its internal development in Islamic thought and presents it as a helpful basis for interreligious discussion. The topic is very much in need of teaching and discussion and is a fine example of common ground.

John Renard, author of Islam and Christianity. Contains valuable and fascinating material about how classical Muslim theologians treated various aspects of Jesus and, in particular, the role of Jesus in Islamic eschatology. Saritoprak brings new insights from contemporary Turkish thinkers to bear on the issues raised by the Jesus figure in Islamic narratives about the Last Days.

Marcia Hermansen, author of Shah Wali Allah's Treatises on Islamic Law. A refreshingly easy read that makes a complex world of theology and interfaith relations accessible and enjoyable for readers of all backgrounds.

Jonathan Brown, author of Hadith Muhammad's Legacy in the Medieval and Modern World. Few people realize that Jesus was a prominent messenger of God in Islam and that Muslims believe in the return of Jesus. Even among Muslims, it is not well known that there are diverse interpretations of references to Jesus in the Qur'an and the Hadith. Aiming to remedy this, Islam's Jesus takes a bold yet candid look at the highly charged topic of Jesus's place in Islam, exploring some of the religion's least understood aspects. Examining multiple intellectual traditions, Zeki Saritoprak makes clear the reality of pluralism in the history of Islamic religious scholarship. Actively engaged in efforts to promote interfaith dialogue and harmony, Saritoprak thoughtfully argues that the shared belief in Jesus presents an excellent opportunity for understanding between Muslims and Christians. Together, they constitute more than half of the world's population, and such understanding may be a foundation for peace.

The Forbidden Tree and the Jinn Serkan Zorba, 2023-05-10 Foremost among the most alluring mysteries and symbolisms of the Quran are the concepts of jinn, the Forbidden Tree, and the expulsion of Adam and Eve from paradise, aka the Fall of Adam or the Fall of Man. Notwithstanding the importance of these concepts to the Islamic religion and culture, and the ever-mounting modern scientific knowledge, the contemporary Muslim understanding of them is truth be told, nebulous. The legends of the Forbidden Tree and the Fall of Adam are central to the story of the creation of humanity's primogenitors, not only in the Quran but also in the Bible. However, the meaning and significance of these stories have not yet been rationally elucidated. Islamic scholars, imams, and the so-called sheiks cannot shed much scholarly light to further our understanding of these topics as they almost never go beyond rehashing what is written in the traditional sources Likewise Judaic and Christian authorities have not advanced any rationally satisfactory explanations for these narrations In fact studying the contemporary Abrahamic religious cultural and self proclaimed scientific expositions on these subjects is an example of obscurum per obscurius This book presents two bold ideas pertaining to these topics which are complementary to one another 1 A novel interpretation of the Forbidden Tree and the Fall of Adam legends It deciphers the true meaning behind the Quranic and Biblical accounts of Adam and Eve eating from this forbidden tree exposing their private parts incurring the punishments of having to constantly struggle for survival and of being enemies with other living beings and shedding blood This interpretation also naturally resolves another age old enigma of God teaching Adam the names of all things 2 It shows that the concepts of jinn and devils do not refer to supernatural beings as traditionally assumed but rather to tangible beings that are all important for the biosphere and human health and wellbeing The interpretation that Dr Zorba has developed of these motifs is strictly based on a close reading of the Quran and the Hadith with the help of physics microbiology microbial ecology biogeochemistry and the fast emerging science of microbiota
