

RIVER POEMS

- Suicide's Note

The calm,
Cool face of the river asked me for a kiss.

- On The Pulse Of Morning

A Rock, A River, A Tree
Hosts to species long since departed, Mark the mastodon.

- Fable Of The Mermaid And The Drunks

All those men were there inside, when she came in totally naked.

- The Sun Has Burst The Sky

The sun has burst the sky
Because I love you

- The Brook

I come from haunts of coot and hern,
I make a sudden sally

- A Miracle For Breakfast

At six o'clock we were waiting for coffee, waiting for coffee and the charitable crumb

- Midsummer, Tobago

Broad sun-stoned beaches.
White heat. A green river.

- Ask Me

Some time when the river is ice ask me mistakes I have made. Ask me whether what I have done is my life.

Poems From The River

Poems From The River:

Poems from the River Kurt Brindley, 2014-12-11 Just as water naturally follows the course set by the sometimes wayward and often divergent banks of the river Kurt Brindley's poems in his debut poetry collection POEMS FROM THE RIVER follow the course set by the sometimes wayward and often divergent life he has led From solitary childhood reflections and isolated moments with nature to the anxiety associated with the unrelenting passing of time and the fear of cancer's ultimate consequences to the pleasures and pain of family friends work play love hate life death Kurt's poetry flows as does a river sometimes with ease and quiet calm just as a river flows through an isolated gulf's serene and lazy shallows at other times with spontaneity and unforgiving force just as a river flows through a precipitous canyon's tumultuous and unpredictable rapids and at all times with undiminished resolve and pure blind faith that the end will justify the means just as a river forever flows blindly towards some unknown yet faithfully pursued grander body of water River Ted

Hughes, 2013-05-02 First published in 1983 River celebrates fluvial landscapes their creatures and their regenerative powers Inspired by Hughes's love of fishing and by his environmental activism the poems are a deftly and passionately attentive chronicle of change over the course of the seasons West Country rivers predominate The West Dart and Torridge but other poems imagine or recall Japanese rivers or Celtic rivers and The Gulkana explores an ancient Alaskan watercourse At its core the sequence rehearses in various settings from winter to winter the life cycle of the salmon All this too is stitched into the torn richness The epic poise That holds him so steady in his wounds so loyal to his doom so patient In the machinery of heaven from October Salmon A Door on the River Jessica Hornik, 2018-09-12 Brocade River Poems Xue

Tao, 2016-06-10 Xue Tao A.D. 768-831 was well known as a poet in an age when all men of learning were poets and almost all women were illiterate As an entertainer and official government hostess she met and impressed many of the most talented and powerful figures of her day As a maker of beautiful paper and a Taoist churchwoman she maintained a life of independence and aesthetic sensibility As a writer she created a body of work that is by turns deeply moving amusing and thought provoking Drawing knowledgeably on a rich literary tradition she created images that here live again for the contemporary reader of English This bilingual edition contains about two thirds of Xue Tao's extant poems The translations are based on accurate readings of the originals and extensive research in both Chinese and Japanese materials The notes at the end of the book explain allusions and place the poems in the context of medieval Chinese culture and its great literary heritage while the opening essay introduces Xue Tao's work and describes her unusual life history I Will Meet You at the

The River of Life Poetry Collection Susan P Doherty, 2022-10-24

The River of Life Poetry Collection is a book of thirty poems created over a few years The poems are not based on any real life situations However reflection observation and imagination would inevitably have played a part in their formation The words have not been forced but gently flowed outlining the beauty and wonder of life recording precious moments but also noting life's fragility and value Readers may find that the language used within some of the poems resonates with their own life experiences therefore bringing memories to the fore Each of the poems tells its own creative story for the reader outlining the natural course of life that can be filled with so much happiness and joy but may also be tinged with immense sadness and pain The reader will have the opportunity to identify with the stories portrayed whether this is from the innocence of youth through to older age or sharing their journey with someone special as an adult A few poems demonstrate the imperfections of people and the devastation caused while others represent kindness and devotion offering a reminder to the reader of the importance of words and the way in which they are used
