Alliteration

Repeating the same beginning sound in more than two words.

She sells seashells by the seashore.
Crazy kangaroos kissed quietly.

Your Own Examples:

Onomatopoeia

Words that sound like the object or actions they refer to.

The mosquitoes buzzed.
Thunder boomed overhead.

Your Own Examples:

Personification

Giving non-human objects, human qualities.

The sun smiled on the angry clouds.

Your Own Examples:

Rhyme

Words that have the same ending sounds.

The ting birds in the tree,
Were singing softly just for me.

Your Own Examples:

Metaphor

A comparison between two unlike things without using "like", "as", or "than".

My friend is a treasure.
Henry is a calculator.

Your Own Examples:

Chambliss, Linda Valli, 2011-07-16 Engaging students in worthwhile learning requires more than a knowledge of underlying principles of good teaching It demands considerable practice as well as images of what good teaching in particular situations and for particular purposes might look like This volume provides these images These cases were written from authentic unrehearsed lessons taught by upper elementary classroom teachers to diverse groups of real students in intact classrooms Each lesson contains elements of sound instructional practice from which both preservice and in service teachers can benefit Cases are not meant to be ideal but rather to evoke ways of seeing and thinking about good classroom instruction for all learners Accompanied by analytic commentaries from experts representing a particular perspective such as special education and ESOL these unrehearsed cases are written with the understanding that teaching is complex and multi dimensional The cases are drawn from a four year study of 4th and 5th grade mathematics instruction of culturally diverse classrooms with relatively high rates of students from low income families Celebrating Poetry Across the K-12 Curriculum Napoli, Mary, Day, Deanna, Ward, Barbara A., 2025-07-16 Poetry provides opportunities to explore the universal and common experiences that connect us as human beings When teachers infuse poetry into their classroom it can foster compassion develop interdisciplinary connections and support literacy instruction However not all teachers use poetry in their classroom either because they are not aware of the value of poetry or because they have not had positive experiences with poetry Given the importance of sharing poetry with today's youth educators must feel confident in evaluating well written poetry and how to weave poetry from award winning poets to support interdisciplinary connections Celebrating Poetry Across the K 12 Curriculum aims to ensure that poetry for children is not neglected as part of the curriculum and to help educators feel more confident in their understanding of children's poetry its relevance to children's lives and its importance to supporting pedagogical connections Featuring interviews with well known poets this resource also showcases the latest pedagogical and scholarly research supporting the integration of poetry in the K 12 classroom Covering topics such as science content romanticism and diversity recognition this book is an excellent resource for educators classroom teachers literacy specialists librarians professionals researchers scholar academicians and more Research in Education, 1974 Teaching Poetry Writing Tom Hunley, 2007-05-17 Teaching Poetry Writing A Five Canon Approach is a comprehensive alternative to the full class workshop approach to poetry writing instruction In the five canon approach peer critique of student poems takes place in online environments freeing up class time for writing exercises and lessons based on the five canons of classical rhetoric invention arrangement style memory and delivery Research in the Teaching of English, 1981 A Handbook for the Art and

Science of Teaching Robert J. Marzano, John L. Brown, 2009-06-10 In A Handbook for the Art and Science of Teaching Robert J Marzano and John L Brown help you explore and refine your instructional strategies always with the goal of enhancing student achievement As a companion volume to Marzano s The Art and Science of Teaching the handbook is intended to be a guide for individual teachers study groups and professional developers working together to improve their teaching It is organized into 25 modules each related to one of the 10 design questions introduced in the earlier book Each module begins with a series of reflection questions and concludes with a set of self assessment questions that allow the reader to determine areas that might need further work At the heart of each module are specific strategies for addressing the key components of effective teaching Dozens of examples illustrate the strategies in action in elementary and secondary classrooms in all subject areas The strategies provide a thorough grounding in the science of teaching How a teacher chooses to implement them constitutes the art of teaching Both elements are necessary for improving student achievement and creating successful schools For anyone committed to developing a wide range of teaching skills this handbook is a welcome road map to best practices
