Freeman, 2023-05-04 Winner of the Literary Encyclopedia 2024 Book Prize in the category of literatures originally written in English Emily Dickinson's Poetic Art is both an exciting work of literary criticism on a central figure in American literature as well as an invitation for students and researchers to engage with cognitive literary studies Emily Dickinson's poetry can be challenging and difficult It paradoxically gives readers a feeling of closeness and intimacy while being puzzling and obscure Critical interpretations of Dickinson's poems tend to focus on what they mean rather than on what kind of experience they create A cognitive approach to literary criticism based on recent cognitive research helps readers experience and understand the hows and whys of what a poem is saying and doing These include cognitive linguistic analysis versification prosody cognitive metaphor schema blending and iconicity all of which explain the sensory motor and emotive processes that motivate Dickinson's conceptualizations By experiencing Dickinson's poetry from a cognitive perspective readers are able to better understand why we feel so close to the poet and

why her poetry endures Emily Dickinson s Poetic Art A Cognitive Reading is an important contribution to the study of a major American poet as well as to the vibrant field of cognitive literary studies

Universality and Utopia Daniel Sacilotto,2023-02-14 This book explores the intersection between philosophical and literary universalism in Latin America tracing its configuration within the twentieth century Peruvian socialist indigenista tradition following from the work of Jos Carlos Mari tegui and elaborated in the literary works of C sar Vallejo and Jos Mar aArguedas Departing from conventional accounts that interpret indigenismo as part of a regionalist literature seeking to describe and vindicate the rural Indian in particular I argue that Peruvian indigenista literature formed part of a historical sequence through which urban mestizo intellectuals sought to imagine a future for Peruvian society as a whole Going beyond the destiny of acculturation imagined by liberal writers such as Manuel Gonz lez Prada in the late nineteenth century I show how the socialist indigenista tradition imagined a bilateral process of appropriation and mediation between the rural Indian and mestizo integrating pre Hispanic as well as Western cultural and economic forms so as to give shape to a process of alternative modernity apposite to the Andean world In doing so indigenista authors interrogated the foundations of European Marxism in light of the distinctiveness of Peruvian society and its history expressing ever more nuanced figurations of the emancipatory process and the forms of its revolutionary agency
