Philip Kaufman Annette Insdorf,2012-02-28 American director Philip Kaufman is hard to pin down a visual stylist who is truly literate a San Franciscan who often makes European films he is an accessible storyteller with a sophisticated touch Celebrated for his vigorous sexy and reflective cinema Kaufman is best known for his masterpiece The Unbearable Lightness of Being and the astronaut saga The Right Stuff In this study Annette Insdorf argues that Kaufman s cinema is both stylistically and philosophically rich and that his versatility is what distinguishes him as an auteur She demonstrates Kaufman s skill at adaptation and how he finds the precise cinematic device for a story drawn from seemingly unadaptable sources by using his cinematic eye to translate the authorial voice in many of the books that serve as inspiration for his films. Closely analyzing his films to date, Insdorf links Kaufman's versatile cinema by exploring the recurring and resonant themes of sensuality, artistic creation and manipulation by authorities. She illustrates while there is no overarching label or bold signature that can be applied to his oeuvre, there is a consistency of themes, techniques, images and preoccupations that permeates all of Kaufman's works.

Critical Norths Sarah Jaquette Ray, Kevin Maier, 2017-05-15 For millennia the North has held a powerful sway in Western culture. Long seen through contradictions, empty of life yet full of promise, populated by indigenous communities yet ripe for conquest, pristine yet marked by a long human history, it has moved to the foreground of contemporary life as the most dramatic stage for the reality of climate change. This book brings together scholars from a range of disciplines to ask key questions about the North and how we've conceived it and how conceiving of it in those terms has caused us to fail the region's human and nonhuman life. Engaging questions of space, place, indigeneity, identity, nature, the environment, justice, narrative, history and more, it offers a crucial starting point for an essential rethinking of both the idea and the reality of the North.
