The Catholic Church and Politics in Nicaragua and Costa Rica Philip J. Williams,2010-11-23 Unlike most recent studies of the Catholic Church in Latin America Philip J Williams analyzes the Church in two very dissimilar political contexts Nicaragua and Costa Rica Despite the obvious differences Williams argues that in both cases the Church has responded to social change in remarkably similar fashion The efforts of progressive clergy to promote change in both countries have been largely blocked by Church hierarchy fearful that such change will threaten the Church s influence in society      Creating

Pátzcuaro, Creating Mexico Jennifer Jolly,2018-01-24 In the 1930s the artistic and cultural patronage of celebrated Mexican president Lázaro Cárdenas transformed a small Michoacán city Pátzcuaro into a popular center for national tourism Cárdenas commissioned public monuments and archeological excavations supported new schools libraries and a public theater developed tourism sites and infrastructure including the Museo de Artes e Industrias Populares and hired artists to paint murals celebrating regional history traditions and culture The creation of Pátzcuaro was formative for Mexico not only did it provide an early model for regional economic and cultural development but it also helped establish some of Mexico s most enduring national myths rituals and institutions In Creating Pátzcuaro Creating Mexico Jennifer Jolly argues that Pátzcuaro became a microcosm of cultural power during the 1930s and that we find the foundations of modern Mexico in its creation Her extensive historical and archival research reveals how Cárdenas and the artists and intellectuals who worked with him used cultural patronage as a guise for radical modernization in the region Jolly demonstrates that the Pátzcuaro project helped define a new modern body politic for Mexico in which the population was asked to emulate Cárdenas by touring the country and seeing and embracing its land history and people Ultimately by offering Mexicans a means to identify and engage with power and privilege the creation of Pátzcuaro placed art and tourism at the center of Mexico s postrevolutionary nation building project      Ven Conmigo!, Grades 7-12 Holt,Holt Staff,1996      Looking for Mexico John Mraz,2009-06-15
