Burke, 2000-02-04 This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the thought of Ignacio Ellacuría the Jesuit philosopher theologian martyred for his work on behalf of Latin America's oppressed peoples While serving as president of the Jesuit run University of Central America in the midst of El Salvador's brutal civil war Ellacuría was also a prolific writer His advocacy on behalf of the country's persecuted majority provoked the enmity of the Salvadoran political establishment On November 16 1989 members of the Salvadoran military entered the university's campus and murdered Ellacuría along with five other Jesuit priests and two women Kevin F Burke SJ shows why Ellacuría is significant not only as a martyr but also as a theologian Ellacuría effectively integrated philosophy history anthropology and sociopolitical analysis into his theological reflections on salvation spirituality and the church to create an original contribution to liberation theology Ellacuría's writings directly address one of the most vexing issues in theology today can theologians account for the demands arising from both the particularity of their various social historical situations and also the universal claims of Christian revelation Burke explains how Ellacuría bases theology in a philosophy of historical reality the ground beneath the cross and interprets the suffering of the crucified peoples in the light of Jesus' crucifixion Ellacuría thus inserts the theological realities of salvation and transcendence squarely within the course of human events and he connects these to the Christian mandate to take the crucified peoples down from their crosses Placing Ellacuría's thought in the context of historical trends within the Roman Catholic Church particularly Vatican II and the rise of liberation theology in Latin America Burke argues that Ellacuría makes a distinctive contribution to contemporary Catholic theology Juntos: Teacher's edition. c2000, 1997 Fe y Desplazamiento Christopher M.
