Literature and "Interregnum" Patrick Dove, 2016-06-21 Literature and Interregnum examines the unraveling of the political forms of modernity through readings of end of millennium literary texts by César Aira Marcelo Cohen Sergio Chejfec Diamela Eltit and Roberto Bolaño The opening of national spaces to the global capitalist system in the 1980s culminates in the suspension of key principles of modernity most notably that of political sovereignty While the neoliberal model subjugates modern forms of social organization and political decision making to an economic rationale the market is unable to provide a new ordering principle that could fill the empty place formerly occupied by the national figure of the sovereign The result is a situation that resembles what the Italian political philosopher Antonio Gramsci termed interregnum an in between time in which the old order is dying and the new cannot be born The recoding of history as literary form provides occasions for reconsidering modern conceptualizations of aesthetic experience mood temporality thought politics ethical experience as well as of literature itself as social institution In his analysis Patrick Dove seeks to create dialogues between literature and theoretical perspectives including Continental philosophy political thought psychoanalysis and sociology of globalization The author highlights the connections between mass media technology politics and economics

Landscape's Revenge Caio Yurgel, 2018-11-05 Landscape as it appears and is described throughout the works of Bernardo Carvalho and Robert Walser provides an excellent yet virtually unexplored pathway to the authors literary projects The landscape functions here as a synthetic and unifying figure that triggers at first through the analysis of its description per se the main and most evident elements of the authors works However when sustained as a methodological figure beyond the scope of its own description the landscape soon reveals a darker far more fascinating and far less explored side of the authors oeuvres a vengeful seemingly defeatist resentment against the status quo which gives way to the more latent and biting elements of the authors prose such as irony the unheimlich an anti heroic agenda the apocalyptic aesthetics of a disaster prone fictional world as well as an understanding of history and literature through the figures of failure and marginality By drawing from diverse critical traditions from Latin America and Europe this comparative text seeks to unravel in all of its complexity and scope the fictional stage upon which Walser s and Carvalho s characters narrate with their dying breath a world that is slowly undoing itself

Catholic Iconography in the Novels of Juan Marsé Rosemary Clark, 2003

The prize winning novelist Juan Mars born in Barcelona in 1933 is widely read not only within Spain but also in translation for his often provocative portrayals of life in post war Barcelona Clark s study discusses Mars s engagement with Catholic popular culture Spanish National Catholicism and Catalan Catholic Nationalism exploring his subversion of iconic imagery as an ironic sub textual commentary on political ideology by which he is able to experiment with outer reality and inner reconstructions of experience Dr Clark shows how religious and profane visions of love are subtly intertwined how the tales told by children and the novel form itself are interrelated and finally how a variety of biblical topoi ranging from the Garden of Eden to the Song of Songs are deployed in Mars s fiction Particular attention is paid to La oscura historia de la prima Montse Si te dicen que ca and Im genes y recuerdos Amazon com
