Romps Tots And Boffins The Strange Language Of News:

Romps, Tots and Boffins Robert Hutton, 2013 You may not recognise the phrase but if you have ever picked up a paper you will have come across journalese Essentially it covers words and phrases that are only found in newspapers whether tabloid or broadsheet Without them how would our intrepid journalists be able to describe a world in which late night revellers go on booze fuelled rampages where tots in peril are saved by have a go heroes and where troubled stars lash out in foul mouthed tirades When Rob Hutton began collecting examples of journalese online he provoked a Twitter storm and was left reeling by the scores of examples that flooded in He realized that phrases which started as shorthand to help readers have become a dialect which is often meaningless or vacuous to non journalese speakers In a courageous attempt both to wean journalists off their journalese habit and provide elucidation for the rest of us Romps Tots and Boffins will catalogue the highs and lows of this strange language celebrating the best examples test tube baby mad cow disease marvelling at the quirky boffins frogmen and condemning the worst rant snub sirs It will be a must read page turner that may cause a stir fuel controversy or even spark tough new rules in newsrooms
