Roni Horn Nora Burnett Abrams, Jarrett Earnest, Anne Carson, Roni Horn, 2025-09-09 A comprehensive look at the celebrated work of contemporary artist Horn whose innovative exploration of water as a medium and metaphor has established her as a vital voice in the discourse on identity perception and the environment This book is a captivating exploration of Horn s decades long fascination with water both as a material and a metaphor Known for her provocative approach to perception identity and the mutability of form Horn uses water to mirror human experience and emotion Born in 1955 in New York Horn has spent decades pushing the boundaries of art to explore the complexities of identity perception and nature Horn s body of work spans photography cast glass and installation consistently returning to the theme of fluidity Her iconic series You Are the Weather 100 photographs of Icelandic artist Margr t Haraldsd ttir Bl ndal submerged in water reveals how water can both obscure and define identity Similarly her liquid glass sculptures play with the tension between solidity and fluidity their colors ranging from turquoise to black In an era marked by climate change and water scarcity Horn s works pose urgent questions about water as a shared resource and a symbol of impermanence and survival This volume not only offers a retrospective of her water centered works but also connects them to broader global challenges with critical and poetic texts by Nora Burnett Abrams Jarrett Earnest Anne Carson and the artist herself

The Contemporary Medieval in Practice Clare A. Lees, Gillian R. Overing, 2019-10-07 Contemporary arts both practice and methods offer medieval scholars innovative ways to examine explore and reframe the past Medievalists offer contemporary studies insights into cultural works of the past that have been made or reworked in the present Creative critical writing invites the adaptation of scholarly style using forms such as the dialogue short essay and the poem these are the authors argue appropriate ways to explore innovative pathways from the contemporary to the medieval and vice versa Speculative and non traditional The Contemporary Medieval in Practice adapts the conventional scholarly essay to reflect its cross disciplinary creative subject This book does Medieval Studies differently by bringing it into relation with the field of contemporary arts and by making practice in the sense used by contemporary arts and by creative critical writing central to it Intersecting with a number of urgent critical discourses and cultural practices such as the study of the environment and the ethics of understanding bodies identities and histories this short accessible book offers medievalists a distinctive voice in multi disciplinary trans chronological collaborative conversations about the Humanities Its subject is early medieval British culture often termed Anglo Saxon Studies c 500 1100 and its relation with use of and re working in contemporary visual poetic and material culture after 1950 The Contemporary Medieval in Practice is both wise and unafraid to take risks Fully embedded in scholarship yet reaching into unmapped territory the authors move across disciplines and forge surprising links Thought provoking and evocative this is a book that will have an impact that far belies its modest length Linda Anderson Newcastle University

The Hydrocene Bronwyn Bailey-Charteris, 2024-05-09 This book challenges conventional notions of the

Anthropocene and champions the Hydrocene the Age of Water It presents the Hydrocene as a disruptive conceptual epoch and curatorial theory emphasising water s pivotal role in the climate crisis and contemporary art The Hydrocene is a wet ontological shift in eco aesthetics which redefines our approach to water transcending anthropocentric neo colonial and environmentally destructive ways of relating to water As the most fundamental of elements water has become increasingly politicised threatened and challenged by the climate crisis In response The Hydrocene articulates and embodies the distinctive ways contemporary artists relate and engage with water offering valuable lessons towards climate action Through five compelling case studies across swamp river ocean fog and ice this book binds feminist environmental humanities theories with the practices of eco visionary artists Focusing on Nordic and Oceanic water based artworks it demonstrates how art can disrupt established human water dynamics By engaging hydrofeminist care based and planetary thinking The Hydrocene learns from the knowledge and agency of water itself within the tide of art going into the blue The Hydrocene urgently highlights the transformative power of eco visionary artists in reshaping human water relations At the confluence of contemporary art curatorial theory climate concerns and environmental humanities this book is essential reading for researchers curators artists students and those seeking to reconsider their connection with water and advocate for climate justice amid the ongoing natural cultural water crisis The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete, 2020-10-01 In The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete brings together contemporary women writers and artists well known for their formal experimentation Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Lygia Clark Marguerite Duras Roni Horn and Clarice Lispector to argue that the aesthetic experiences afforded by their work are underwritten by a tenacious and uniquely feminine ethics of desire To elaborate this ethics Negrete looks to notions of sublimation and feminine sexuality developed by Freud Baudelaire Mallarmé and Nietzsche and their reinvention with and after Jacques Lacan including in the schizoanalysis of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari But she also highlights how psychoanalytic theory draws on writing and other creative practices to conceive of unconscious processes and the transformation sought through analysis Thus the aesthetic clinic of the book s title a term Negrete adopts from Deleuze is not an applied psychoanalysis or schizoanalysis Rather The Aesthetic Clinic privileges the call and constraints issued by each woman s individual work Engaging an artwork here is less about retrieving a hidden meaning through interpretation than about receiving a precise transmission of sensation a jouissance irreducible to meaning Not only do art and literature serve an urgent clinical function in Negrete s reading but sublimation itself requires an embrace of femininity
