

Room Mom LETTER TO Parents

Hi ____ Grade Parents!

My name is ____, I am ____'s mom, and I will be your room mom this year!

I've attached a sheet to help you learn more about ____ (teacher's name) ____'s favorite things and needs for her classroom.

As room mom, I will be in charge of class projects and class holiday parties. If you would like to participate in parties or projects, please let me know! Our first project will be _____. If you would like to help out with this project, please let me know so I can find out how many parents we can have in the classroom on that day.

I will keep you updated on class events as they come up! :)

Looking forward to a fun year!

Caring for Mom and Dad Susan Stein-Roggenbuck, 2023-10-05 Throughout the twentieth century the United States implemented social policies targeting the needs of dependent parents parents who were no longer able to work but lacked sufficient financial resources to support themselves These parent dependency policies either encouraged or required family members particularly adult children to provide support as an alternative to government benefits Debates over how best to support aging parents centered on conceptualizations of dependency and the moral obligations family owed their parents Measures of dependency often inhibited aging Americans access to benefits they needed focusing instead on ensuring that they were in fact dependent and that other family resources were not available Susan Stein Roggenbuck highlights this understudied aspect of the modern US welfare state highlighting the limited support provided to aging parents and the hardship they and their adult children endured in the efforts to minimize public expenditures

Embalming Mom Janet Burroway, 2004-09 Alternately clever humorous lively sad and charming her book is recommended for both public and academic libraries with large women's collections Library Journal Burroway author of Cutting Stone and six other novels is a pithy essayist with an inner compass that steers her to the ambiguity at the heart of the human condition Booklist Sightline Books is an exciting and welcome promise of all the excellent nonfiction writing just waiting to come into view Vivian Gornick author of The Situation and the Story The Art of Personal Narrative These gathered together autobiographical essays reveal a fascinating honest witty writer I thought I had known briefly thirty years ago I am delighted to discover in this charming memoir that I was woefully ignorant of her extraordinary life Now I feel privileged to learn of it in such an elegantly written fashion Doris Grumbach The most lively witty uncensored celebration of the life of a writer woman lover wife mother stepmother against the history of her time and what a time it was and is No futile cry of ME but bold and brilliant portraits of where we have been and where we are headed Brava Burroway o Julia Markus Past Praise for Janet Burroway She writes like a robust Angel London Guardian on Raw Silk A fine and complex novel a comedy and then some New Yorker on Opening Nights a novel of rare and lustrous quality Newsweek on Raw Silk What sets Raw Silk apart is Janet Burroway's superb stylistic gifts New York Times Book Review Miss Burroway's gifts are those of a fine intuitive actress one of those rare accomplished stylists whose art lies in the air of effortlessness or near invisibility New Statesman on The Buzzards For people like me these essays on life are instructive Their titles reveal their central themes but Burroway feels confident and free to range wide from the main trunk looping out into her life and her metaphors then back again probing through and confessing all because for the real writer who has come so far it seems now there is no point in not Fourth Genre Janet Burroway followed in the footsteps of Sylvia Plath Like Plath she was an early Mademoiselle guest editor in New York an Ivy League and Cambridge student an aspiring poet playwright novelist in the period before feminism existed a woman who struggled with her generation's conflicting demands of work and love Unlike Plath Janet Burroway survived In sixteen essays of wit rage and reconciliation Embalming Mom chronicles loss and renaissance in a life that reaches from Florida to Arizona across to England and home again Burroway brilliantly weaves her way through the dangers of daily life divorcing her first husband raising two boys establishing a new life scattering her mother's ashes and sorting the meager possessions of her father Each new danger and challenge highlight the tenacious will of the body and spirit to heal Ordinary life is more dangerous than war because nobody survives Burroway contemplates in the essay Danger and Domesticity yet each of her meditations reminds us that it's our daily rituals and trials that truly keep us alive Janet Burroway is the author of plays poetry children's books and seven novels including The Buzzards Raw Silk Opening Nights and Cutting Stone Her textbook Writing Fiction now in its fifth edition is used in more than three hundred colleges and universities in the United States a further text Imaginative Writing is due out in 2002 She is Robert O Lawton Distinguished Professor at Florida State University in Tallahassee
