Rosies War An Englishwoman's Escape From Occupied France:

Rosie's War Noel Holland, Rosemary Say, 2011-05-18 The extraordinary and genuine account of Rosemary Say a courageous young Englishwoman whose emigration to France in 1939 led her to suffer the horrors of life under the Nazis

Paris Undercover Matthew Goodman, 2025-02-04 Two women in Nazi occupied Paris created a daring escape line that rescued dozens of Allied servicemen With one still in a German prison camp the other wrote a book about it a memoir built on fabrications Now the bestselling author of Eighty Days shares their incredible never before told full story A heart pounding tale of betrayal that is impossible to put down Lynne Olson author of Madame Fourcade's Secret War Etta Shiber and Kate Bonnefous are the unlikeliest of heroines two seemingly ordinary women an American widow and an English divorcee living quietly together in Paris Yet during the Nazi occupation these two friends find themselves unexpectedly plunged into the whirlwind of history With the help of a French country priest and others they set out to rescue British and French soldiers trapped behind enemy lines some of whom they daringly smuggle through Nazi checkpoints hidden inside the trunk of their car Ultimately the Gestapo captures them both After eighteen months in prison Etta is returned to the United States in a prisoner exchange Back home hoping to bring attention to her friend Kitty's bravery she publishes a memoir about their work Paris Underground becomes a publishing sensation and Etta a celebrity Meanwhile Kate spends the rest of the war in a Nazi prison entirely unaware of the book that has been written about her and the deeds that have been claimed in her name In researching this story Matthew Goodman uncovered military records and personal testimonies that reveal for the first time the shocking truth behind Etta's memoir and the unexpected far reaching consequences of its publication More than just a story of two women's remarkable courage Paris Undercover is a vivid gripping account of deceit betrayal and personal redemption

British Internment and the Internment of Britons Gillian Carr, Gilly Carr, Rachel Pistol, 2023-06-15 This edited volume presents a cutting edge discussion and analysis of civilian enemy alien internment in Britain the internment of British civilians on the continent and civilian internment camps run by the British within the wider British Empire The book brings together a range of interdisciplinary specialists including archaeologists historians and heritage practitioners to give a full overview of the topic of internment internationally Very little has been written about the experience of interned Britons on the continent during the Second World War compared with continentals interned in Britain Even fewer accounts exist of the regime in British Dominions where British guards presided over the camps This collection is the first to bring together the British experiences as the common theme in one study The new research presented here also offers updated statistics for the camps whilst considering the period between 1945 to the present day through related site heritage issues Les Parisiennes

Anne Sebba, 2016-07-14 WINNER OF THE FRANCO BRITISH SOCIETY BOOK PRIZE 2016 June 1940 German troops enter Paris and hoist the swastika over the Arc de Triomphe The dark days of Occupation begin How would you have survived By collaborating with the Nazis or risking the lives of you and your loved ones to resist The women of Paris faced this dilemma every day whether choosing between rations and the black market or travelling on the Metro where a German soldier had priority for a seat Between the extremes of defiance and collusion was a vast moral grey area which all Parisiennes had to navigate in order to survive Anne Sebba has sought out and interviewed scores of women and brings us their unforgettable testimonies Her fascinating cast includes both native Parisiennes and temporary residents American women and Nazi wives spies mothers mistresses artists fashion designers and aristocrats The result is an enthralling account of life during the Second World War and in the years of recovery and recrimination that followed the Liberation of Paris in 1944 It is a story of fear deprivation and secrets and as ever in the French capital glamour and determination Gender, Geography, and Punishment Judith Pallot, Laura Piacentini, Dominique Moran, 2012-10-04

Gaining access to a number of penal colonies to interview prisoners the authors show that much in the Russian prison system today is a direct inheritance from the Soviet period with the result that despite wide ranging the reforms since 1991 the Russian penal experience for women is still uniquely painful Priscilla Nicholas Shakespeare, 2014-07-01

The astonishing true story of a young woman s adventures and misadventures in the dangerous world of Nazi occupied France For Priscilla pre war Paris was an exciting carousel of suitors soir es and heartbreak and eventually a lavish wedding to a French aristocrat But the arrival of the Nazi tanks signalled the end of life as a Vicomtesse and the beginning of a precarious existence under German Occupation Over half a century later her nephew Nicholas Shakespeare found a box of Priscilla s notebooks and journals He began investigating the rumours that she had escaped a prisoner of war camp and fought for the Resistance and he finally unearthed the truth behind suspicions of disreputable love affairs and far darker secrets Under Fire Stephen Bourne, 2020-08-03

Already a decorated heroine of the First World War British born Mary Lindell Comtesse de Milleville was one of the most colourful and courageous agents of the Second World War yet her story has almost been forgotten Evoking the spirit of Edith Cavell and taking the German occupation of Paris in 1940 as a personal affront she led an escape line for patriotic Frenchmen and British soldiers After imprisonment escape to England a secret return to France and another arrest she began to witness the horrors of German run prisons and concentration camps In April 1945 a score of British and American women emerged from the Women's Hell Ravensbrück concentration camp who had been kept alive by the willpower and the strength of one woman Mary Lindell She combined a passion for adventure with blunt speech and persistently displayed the greatest personal bravery in the face of great adversity To counter German claims that they had no British or American prisoners Mary smuggled out a plea for rescue and produced her list from her pinafore pocket compiled in secret from the camp records This vital list contained the names of captured women many of whom were agents of British Military Intelligence the Special Operations Executive or the French Resistance Poignantly supported by first hand testimony Lindell
