Handbook of the Sociology of the Military Giuseppe Caforio, Marina Nuciari, 2018-05-19. This new edition of the volume is presented on the wave of the success which had its first edition 2003. It is entirely updated to the current situation of the disciplines covered and expanded with particular regard to the new missions that have become the main challenge for the armed forces in these first decades of the new millennium with new insights to technological development toward so-called cyborg warriors, new forms of leadership, and changes in soldier's identity and organisational culture. It is compiled of documents coming from various researchers at universities around the world as well as military officers devoted to the sector of study. Covered in this volume is a historical excursus of studies prior to contemporary research, interpretive models, and theoretical approaches developed specifically for this topic: civil-military relations, including issues surrounding democratic control of the armed forces, military culture, professional training, conditions, and problems of minorities in the armed forces; an examination of the structural change within the military over the years, including new duties and functions following the Cold War.

The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security, conflict, violence, and peace on the African continent. It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community largely because it contributes to the on-going debates on security issues. Dr Ntsikelelo

Benjamin Breakfast Director of the Center for Security Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes HIV/AIDS, Gender, Human Security, and Violence in Southern Africa Monica Kathina Juma, Jennifer Klot, 2011 In the 10 years since the United Nations Security Council's first resolution on HIV AIDS the pandemic has had far reaching implications for human security In sub Saharan Africa the epicentre of the pandemic the consequences have been borne disproportionately by women Violent conflicts and insecurity throughout the region characterised by population movements forced migration and environmental crises have overwhelmed the capacity of states to provide preventative measures against HIV AIDS care and treatment In many areas the related stress factors on health systems and basic service provision have pushed community and kinship networks beyond their breaking points The plight of women is exacerbated because they are vulnerable and at high risk of HIV infection due to increased care burdens within the household and community sexual and gender based violence and exploitation as well as coercive interpersonal relationships This volume is a welcome addition to the literature on HIV AIDS and should serve as a useful tool for Aids activists community health workers as well as for policy makers in the region South African Human Resource Management for the Public Sector Barney Erasmus, 2005 This report discusses important themes in the field of human resource management for the public sector including managing employee relations strategizing and planning human resources departments and selecting employees within the equal employment opportunity guidelines Current legislation of the field is discussed and new theories on local and international applied research are explored South African Labour News, 1994 Peacekeeping in Africa Marco Jowell, 2019-08-22 In recent decades African states have developed an impressive infrastructure for training their peacekeepers In addition peacekeeping peacebuilding and associated areas of conflict resolution have become significant areas of employment Marco Jowell has spent a decade working in peacekeeping training in East Africa initially as one of the foreign Technical Advisers at the Peace Support Operations PSO training centre in Kenya the International Peace
