Guys & Dolls Damon Runyon, 1993 The Glimmering Rose Part Two: The Lily of the Valley D.T. Pirkle, 2025-07-21 The war between good and evil wages in every human heart and spills out into the world Picking up where the first book left off the characters find themselves caught in the middle of this war in more ways than one Having to leave everything they know and love behind they re forced to face the reality of what the world has become and find out they were not the only survivors Persisting through one tragedy after another the characters discover just how bloody redemption really is as they accidentally stumble right into the very plot that ended the world over a hundred years ago As the veil is slowly lifted the truth is revealed and it was worse than they ever imagined

Caribbean Waves Heather Hathaway, 1999 Caribbean Waves explores the ways in which literature can probe the complexities of displacement and identity construction that often accompany migratory experiences Analysis of McKay s and Marshall s works reveals how the forces of migration racial and national affiliation and Americanization can merge to produce uniquely hybridized and at times profoundly homeless black American immigrant identities

BOOK JACKET Disreputable Women Christina Jessica Carney, 2025 Disreputable Women is a deeply transdisciplinary study of how black women use sex work and place making to claim economic bodily and sexual autonomy in a militarized city that is intent on displacing and caging them Christina Jessica Carney distills the production of these disreputable women during two major twentieth century urban development processes in downtown San Diego where municipal police public health officials and even activists designated street involved sex workers and the places they congregated as blight Carney documents how some black women reconceptualized the public and private spheres by using residential hotels and multiuse commercial spaces for housing and work controlling their erotic economies and their sexual cultural lives She marks how discrete and explicit intellectual economic and political practices by black women complicate a dominant understanding of red light areas and black sex workers as undesirable contaminants to be cleaned out Instead her intuitive framework of disreputability offers a more ethical and workable approach to imagining the built environment and its inhabitants developing a rich and robust grammar for understanding black women s lives amid scenes of militarization and gendered anti blackness
