Do the Math Philip B Persinger, 2011-10-26 What could be worse than losing the love of your life Getting her back William Teale is a brilliant professor of mathematics His theory of inevitability posits that any human action no matter how insignificant might result in a disproportionately huge calamity His wife Virginia Faye Warner is a world famous romance novelist who specializes in reuniting soul mates after a tragic and prolonged separation According to her math one past and two hearts plus one love equals four ever The Teale Warner marriage is a thing of geometric and artistic perfection a melding of the heart and the brain amour and algebra But when Faye s ghostwriter suffers a nervous breakdown and shakes all the arrows out of Cupid s quiver Faye reintroduces her husband to love Unfortunately it s not with herself but with the woman William had loved and lost years ago Love is about to clash with inevitability and it s unclear which will emerge victorious Told in the off beat voice of William s graduate intern Roger Do the Math reveals the curious relationship between logic and love and the delightful consequences of taking a chance

Giant Country Don Graham, 2013-05-31 In Giant Country Don Graham brings together a collection of lively absorbing essays written over the past two decades The collection begins with a twist on book introductions that sets the tone for the essays to come a self interview conducted poolside at an eccentric Houston motel favored by regional rock bands Over pi a coladas the author works on his tan and discusses timeless Texas themes the transition of the state from a rural to an urban world the sense of a vanishing era and the way that artists in literature and film represent a state both infectiously grand and too big for its britches In Fildelphia Story Graham remembers his Ivy League professorial stint in a city the small town Texan who rented him a moving van looked up under F In Doing England the Lone Star Yankee courts Oxford University and returns with a veddy British education In The Ground Sense Necessary a native son journeys inward to explore the dry ceremonies of frontier Protestantism and to recount movingly his father s funeral in Collin County With his wide ranging knowledge of classic regional works Graham unerringly traces the style and substance of local literary giants and offers a sometimes irreverent but always entertaining look at the Texas triumvirate of Dobie Webb and Bedichek Other essays look at such Texas greats as

Katherine Anne Porter George Sessions Perry William Humphrey and John Graves In a section he calls Polemics Graham includes his best known essays Palefaces vs Redskins a sardonic survey of the Texas literary landscape and Anything for Larry a tour de force that has already become a minor classic The essay weighs the puny financial achievements of Graham against those of mega author Larry McMurtry and never fails to bring down the house when Graham gives a public reading A recognized authority on celluloid Texas Graham provides a rich sampling of his knowledge of Texas movies in pieces that blanket the territory from moo cow cattle drive epics to soggy Alamo sagas to urban cowboy melodramas In the larger than life state that is Texas nobody sizes up the Lone Star mythos its interpreters boosters and detractors better than Don Graham

The Will Moore, William, 2001-03-12 An almost universal occurrence takes place when people's lives reach a midpoint They look back at what they've done and what they haven't They begin asking themselves questions Have they led the lives they dreamed of living Given the chance would they change the past Given the chance would they plot a new course for the future Given the chance would they be willing to toss their security blankets aside and venture into the unknown The Will is about such a person Guy Treadwell a man wallowing in mediocrity He could be any man or woman He is about to turn forty and sees his life as tortuously uneventful but is lost in apathy He recognizes the need for change but is discouraged by previous failures to take the risks needed to send his life in a new direction The average person like Guy is the victim of a ritualistic lifestyle Man is a creature of habit and not easily persuaded to depart from comfort zones Luckily for some unforeseeable things happen that force change death divorce economic disaster a lottery ticket worth millions and so on Guy's unpredictable occurrence is a phone call On the other end of the line is a lawyer who informs Guy Treadwell that he is the designee of a previously unknown relative's will This relative suffers from a terminal illness However there are stipulations If Guy does not conform to these stipulations he will forfeit the inheritance In other words change is not going to be an easy thing to manage He must do his part and do it right Will he be able to hold up his end of the bargain Two old women a pretty nurse and a host of other people who mean well put him to the test

The Judoka W. D. Norwood Jr., 2015-01-16 The term judoka refers to one who does judo the modern martial art with origins in 19th century Japan a fighting art with a particular emphasis on the use of an opponent's own strengths to effect his defeat This book is an account of the adventures of such a man a judoka but it is not just about this man or the martial art he practices Rather it is about the way of judo as both a fighting art and an approach to living a way and what this way might be able to tell us about who we are and who we might choose to become The book does not prescribe a way for others to follow that is it does not simply offer advice about what to believe or how to behave or point out the faults in other ways of being It simply describes the way of one particular man with commentary explaining or rather reasoning through the choices he has made with the story presenting the consequences that these choices have for him
