Samuel Cohen 50 Essays:

50 Essays Samuel Cohen, 2022-10-11      50 Essays Samuel S. Cohen, 2017      Learning Across Borders Amy Hodges, Leslie Seawright, 2016-01-14 Universities everywhere are witnessing growing numbers of students in cross border international and transnational spaces This trend has resulted in many educators revising their curricula pedagogical approaches and assumptions about what it means to provide a university education in the 21st century This edited collection contributes to a growing body of research in international and transnational education by looking back and looking forward at globalisation s impact on higher education The authors in this volume provide a solid base of theoretical knowledge and practical applications to readers in similar situations With growing numbers of students and teachers moving physically and virtually across international borders their expertise is needed The collection contains authors from Germany Ghana Qatar Saudi Arabia Singapore and the United States of America and from varied disciplines such as education English language teaching higher education administration indigenous studies literature mathematics rhetoric and composition and writing centre studies      Substance, Judgment, and Evaluation Patrick T. Flynn, Jean-Marie Kauth, John Kevin Doyle, Scott J. Lee, 2010-06-10 Substance Judgment and Evaluation Seeking the Worth of a Liberal Arts Core Text Education selectively presents the thoughts of scholars and teachers of liberal arts core text education on how their programs formulate and advance a value centered education What emerges from this selection is the wide scope of core text programs underlying the semantic intention of words such as value centered judgment or even liberal arts or collegiate and colleague This volume records the cooperation and thoughtful consideration of faculty from a wide range of higher education institutions research universities comprehensive universities colleges and community colleges who have chosen to come together to form such programs across North America This volume should be of value to any dean director or faculty member who seeks to work with colleagues and texts across disciplines to form a coherent undergraduate program of study within general education

Learning and Personality William K. Lawrence, 2015-09-04 How does an introverted student with a visual or auditory learning preference find success in a classroom built for extroverted kinesthetic learners While student discussion in the classroom is invaluable it also presents an issue for many students not only in how they feel in the class setting but in how they ultimately learn Given the emerging understanding of differing personality types and learning preference it is questionable whether all students are served by socially active methods that mandate students to speak Learning and Personality documents how introverted and intrapersonal students are being subjected to uncomfortable situations in schools today This book focuses on the classroom experience of students who have been identified as learning best through reflection and observation The author uses an American college writing class as the setting to explore the in depth experience of common first year students The results of this primary qualitative study reveal a glaring conflict within mainstream educational theory With more than five years of research and over one hundred references cited from sources that span two centuries this book calls attention to a mass misunderstanding of introversion as well as the effects of instructional methods that appeal to only one type of personality

From Me to We Jason Griffith, 2016-08-19 With this practical book you ll learn effective ways to engage students in reading and writing by teaching them narrative nonfiction By engaging adolescents in narrative literary or creative nonfiction they can cultivate a greater understanding of themselves the world around them and what it means to feel empathy for others This book will guide you to first structure a reading unit around a narrative nonfiction text and then develop lessons and activities for students to craft their own personal essays Topics include Engaging your students in the reading of a nonfiction narrative with collaborative chapter notes empathy check ins and a mini research paper to deepen students understanding Helping your students identify meaningful life events recount their experiences creatively and construct effective opening and closing lines for their personal essays Encouraging your students to use dialogue outside research and a clear plot structure to make their narrative nonfiction more compelling and polished The strategies in this book are supplemented by examples of student work and snapshots from the author s own classroom The book also includes interviews with narrative nonfiction writers MK Asante and Johanna Bear The appendices offer additional tips for using narrative nonfiction in English class text and online resources for teaching narrative nonfiction and a correlation chart between the activities in this book and the Common Core Standards

Disruptive Stories Elizabeth Kleinfeld, Sohui Lee, Julie Prebel, 2024-06-28 Disruptive Stories uses an activist editing method to select and publish authors that have been marginalized in scholarly conversations and enrich the understanding of lived writing center experiences that have been underrepresented in writing center scholarship These chapters explore how marginality affects writing centers the people who work in them and the scholarship generated from them by examining the consequences both positive and negative of marginalization through a mix of narratives and research Contributors provide unique perspectives ranging across status role nationality race and ability While US tenure track writing center administrators WCAs do not make up the majority of those who hold WCA positions in writing centers they are more likely to be the storytellers of the writing center grand narrative They publish more present more conference papers edit more journals and participate more in organizational leadership This collection complicates that narrative by adding marginalized voices and experiences in three thematic categories structural marginalization globalization and marginalization and embodied marginalization Disruptive Stories spurs further conversations about ways to improve the review process in writing center scholarship so that it more accurately reflects the growing diversity of its administrators and practitioners

From Hip-Hop to Hyperlinks Joanna N. Saving Civility Sara Hacala,2011 Presents fifty two suggestions to bring civility back to everyday interaction Play the Game. Change the Game. Leave the Game. Robert Livingston,2025-09-09 Instead of waiting for White people to change Black people must prioritize their own prosperity power and self determination by navigating challenging and exiting racist systems a radical argument from a Harvard behavioral scientist It s time to face an inconvenient truth our current approach to fighting racism is just not working For a brief moment following the murder of George Floyd it seemed as though the country had finally acknowledged the destructive legacy of slavery and White supremacy and had committed to putting things right Now a horde of prominent voices many of whom professed to be antiracist allies are pulling back cutting support and defunding programs that sought to level the playing field Harvard psychologist Robert Livingston contends that racism operates like an addiction for so many White people hard to admit and even harder to quit Given their unwillingness to kick the habit where does this leave Black people In this provocative book Livingston has flipped the script asking How can Black people attain prosperity and peace of mind despite the enduring presence of racism Livingston reveals three paths Play the game or find ways to work within mainstream predominantly White systems without sacrificing your identity or dignity Think of Kenneth Chenault a tempered radical who rose through the ranks to become the first Black CEO of American Express Change the game or challenge the status quo in an effort to upend White supremacy like Colin Kaepernick whose idealism cost him his football career but made him an icon Leave the game or turn away from White environments to carve out spaces where Black people can flourish from HBCUs to entrepreneurship to the creation of ethnic enclaves like the all Black middle class neighborhood where Livingston himself grew up Drawing on social science his own experiences and interviews with trailblazing Black leaders and luminaries Livingston reveals the contours of these oft overlapping paths for effectively navigating mitigating and circumventing White supremacy Play the Game Change the Game Leave the Game is a bold groundbreaking proposition that empowers readers to make the leap from being played to creating their own game plan

On History and Memory in Arab Literature and Western Poetics Bootheina Majoul, Yosra Amraoui, 2020-10-06 Texts act like receptacles for an ever present remembered past or what the French philosopher Paul Ricur calls the present representation of an absent thing They might embody an efficient remedy to forgetting but could also become a vivid testimony for exorcised traumas This volume focuses on Ricur's phenomenology of memory epistemology of history and hermeneutics of forgetting A special emphasis is laid on the dissension between individual and collective institutional memory
