Plato's Socrates on Socrates Anne-Marie Schultz, 2020-03-19 In Plato's Socrates on Socrates Socratic Self Disclosure and the Public Practice of Philosophy Anne Marie Schultz analyzes the philosophical and political implications of Plato's presentation of Socrates self disclosive speech in four dialogues Theaetetus Symposium Apology and Phaedo Schultz argues that these moments of Socratic self disclosure show that Plato's presentation of Socrates the narrator is much more pervasive than the secondary literature typically acknowledges Despite the pervasive appearance of a Socrates who describes his own experience throughout the dialogues Socratic autobiographical self disclosure has received surprisingly little scholarly attention Plato's use of narrative particularly his trope of Socrates the narrator is often subsumed into discussions of the dramatic nature of the dialogues more generally rather than studied in its own right Schultz shows how these carefully crafted narrative remarks add to the richness and profundity of the Platonic texts on multiple levels To illustrate how these embedded Socratic narratives contribute to the portrait of Socrates as a public philosopher in Plato's dialogues the author also examines Socratic self disclosive practices in the works of bell hooks Kathy Khang and Ta Neishi Coates and even practices the art of Socratic self disclosure herself
