Noyoo,2020-10-11 This is the first book that examines healthy human relationships in post apartheid South Africa In contemporary South Africa human relationships are under considerable threat Despite the 1994 commitment to an inclusive and human rights based democracy human relationships remain strained Bearing in mind South Africa s tortuous and divisive past this book brings to light many issues prospects and challenges with regard to the promotion of healthy human relationships after apartheid ended Social work and social development perspectives are central to the issues that are raised in this volume The profession of social work has always championed the centrality of human relationships being less interested in the internal functioning of people and more interested in their interpersonal functioning within broader structures and forces including social justice building people s strengths and capabilities anti discrimination diversity and empowerment This edited book is based on select papers presented at a social work conference in 2019 that was co hosted by the Department of Social Development at the University of Cape Town and the Association of South African Social Work Education Institutions In the chapters the contributors offer some solutions to the ubiquitous societal ills that emanate from either corrosive or broken human relationships Resurgent racism in post apartheid South Africa and the need to promote healthy human relationships Promoting healthy human relationships with sub Saharan African immigrants and South Africans Promoting family and human relationships in a traumatised society Social policy social welfare social security and legislation in promoting healthy human relationships in post apartheid South Africa Social protection as a tool to promote healthy human relationships in South Africa Promoting Healthy Human Relationships in Post Apartheid South Africa is an essential resource for an international audience of scholars policy makers and social work and social development practitioners legislators and students Extracting the Science Jürgen F. Brune,2010 These research papers also cover a spectrum of innovative technical solutions including computer controlled mining equipment remote monitoring of air quality and virtual reality training systems Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher,Kate Cockcroft,2013-01-01

This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners
