Soccer is an intense game of skill and fitness and it's going to take a lot of fun work on your part to make sure that you're ready to stay ahead of and dominate your competition out on the field. The big question is, do you know what it is you have to do to refine your drills and get yourself in fit fighting form before soccer season starts? Or are you just aimlessly jogging around your block a couple of times a day hoping that it will provide your muscles with the conditioning they need to keep up with ninety minutes of fast-paced non-stop action once you hit that turf? If you are among the latter group, there are two things you should know. One is that not focusing on your drills and fitness isn't going to get you anywhere and two that you're in very good company. Many people do not realize that training for a competitive sport such as soccer requires you to have high levels of endurance and cardiovascular fitness. Plus the work rate required to improve your drills and skills is much higher than the half-hearted effort we all make to get in shape every New Year before we eventually decide to throw in the towel.
